PEKING TROOPS FLEE AS CHANG POUNDS AT WALL

City Is in Terror as Invasion Looms.

BY CHARLES DAILEY.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

(Copyright, 1926, By The Chicago Tribune.)

PEKING, April 15.—Peking waits in terror, fearing an immediate occupation by the Manchurian forces of Marshal Chang Tso-lin, following the breaking of the lines of the Kuomintang (national army) of Feng Yuxiang early this morning. The gates are tightly barred and guns are mounted on the walls.

After occupying Tungchow at noon the attacking troops are reported by Japanese wireless tonight to be bivouacked six miles directly east of Peking, while other forces are reported to the southward, seven miles from the legation quarter.

Fear Manchurian Invasion.

A courier arriving tonight reports that Manchurian troops under Gen. Chang Hsueh-liang broke the Kuomintang line thirty miles north of Peking last night and now are racing for Nankow Pass via the Ming tombs. All forces in the neighborhood of Peking are hurriedly evacuating. Streams of weary troops, and endless lines of camels and artillery are passing northward through Chienmen on the way to a northwest station. The peace committee, headed by Wang Shih-chieh, holds itself responsible for the protection of Peking with the usual police force.

Tuan Chi-jui is believed to have left the legation quarter tonight to assume the executive office tomorrow.

Gen. Wang expressed fear at midnight that the Manchurian troops would enter Peking tomorrow without heeding the appeal to leave the city neutral pending the conferences.

Peking in Terror:

The inhabitants of Peking are panicky, owing to the fear of looting if the Manchurian troops enter.

The battered 9th division of the Kuomintang is strung along the roads outside the eastern walls. The commanders are endeavoring to shift to the north, where barracks await them. The more useful elements of the Kuomintang are endeavoring to reach Hankow pass or form a half and half at Shaho, should the Manchurians attack them.

Phone Service Wrecked.

Owing to the looted gates and protracted telephone service, it is impossible accurately to describe the situation. The Kuomintang seemingly holds the railway southward from Peking, having dynamited two bridges south of Hsuehchien, and the Manchurians are endeavoring to obtain information on the northern sector, where the crack Manchurian troops are endeavoring to break through for an attack on the line retreat at Shaho. Both sides apparently see the futility of attempting to battle under the city's walls.

Meantime the probable action of Marshal Wu Peifu's forces remains a mystery. They have had no part in the operations with the advancing troops at Hsuehchien, and the Manchurians are in a position to fall on the flank of the Manchurians, or in the rear of the retreating Kuomintang, or enter the capital from the west, according to the side they finally take.

Wu Marking Time.

Observers believe they will remain in this position, since, having obtained the freedom of the former president, they are in a position to fall on the flank of the Manchurians, or in the rear of the retreating Kuomintang, or enter the capital from the west, according to the side they finally take.

The Kuomintang army last week invited Marshal Wu to take supreme command in Peking. The provisional president, Tuan Chi-jui, was deposed at that time.

But Wu so far has made no move to accept the Kuomintang offer and apparently still remains on the side of the Manchurian dictator, Chang Tso-lin, whom he has been aiding in the present civil war, which has overthrown the Christian general, Feng Yuxiang, organizer of the Kuomintang and erstwhile dictator of the Peking government.

Powers Delegates Plan Tour.

The powers' judicial commission is prepared to start on a provincial tour tomorrow, provided transportation to Hankow is possible. Mahlon F. Perkins will be the American representative. Since Secretary of the United States delegate to the Chinese treaty conference, officially was notified by the Canton government that no useful purpose would be served by a visit there, while the Swatow consul radios.

KILLING OF TWO GANGSTERS LAID TO 'ALKY' RIVALS

Kidnaped as They Deliver Rum.

Two bootleggers, minor figures in the Chicago alcohol empire built up by the notorious Genna brothers, boldly invaded the territory of the powerful McErlane-Solits booze combine on the south side a few weeks ago.

Saturday night they were kidnaped as they delivered a drum of alcohol to a saloon at 1310 West 51st street and yesterday their bullet riddled bodies were found in a curtained automobile at 65th and Rockwell streets.

The slain men were John Tuccello, 36, of 2716 West Harrison street, and Frank De-Laurentis, 27, of 2438 West Harrison street.

Bodies in Car Since Saturday.

They were reported missing to the police on Sunday morning, but in spite of a search by all stations the bodies lay undisturbed in the car from Saturday night until yesterday at noon.

The place where they were discovered is in front of the home of Ralph Sheldon, gunman and former member of the McErlane-Solits gang. Some months ago he broke with his old associates. Soon it was reported he was becoming too friendly with a south side Sicilian colony, planted by the Gennas.

Hitherto this colony had played only a small part in the booze business in the territory. It has been leaderless since three of the Gennas were killed and the others forced to flee from the city. But it is said, the McErlane-Solits combine saw in them, with a man like Sheldon as chief, a menace to the huge profits of their business.

Object Lesson for Sheldon.

Thus, the placing of the bodies at his door is regarded as a grim warning that he is to keep hands off.

From Roman Duchovitz, one of the owners of the 51st street saloon, the police obtained the story of the kidnaping and evidence that Joseph Solits (Polack Joe) plotted the killing of the pair of aspiring bootleggers.

"I was in the saloon when these fellows, Tuccello and De-Laurentis, came in Saturday night," he said.

"They left their car out in the back and came in with the alky. Just then a big car, a Lincoln sedan, stopped in front and four men came in. They had guns and they pointed them at these young fellows. I asked what was the matter and one of them hit me on the head with the butt of a gun."

Then, the saloonkeeper continued, the four men took the two bootleggers back to the alley and loaded them into their own automobile, the same one in which the bodies were found.

Three of the gangsters went with the captives. The fourth followed them in the big car. They went north in Throop street to 56th street, where they turned west.

Says Joe Solits Called.

Duchovitz declared that he thought the four kidnapers were policemen or prohibition agents. He did not know any of them, he added. But he admitted under police questioning that Joe Solits had been in his place several times inquiring about the rival alcohol sellers and asking when they made their calls.

"I called up Tuccello's wife on Sunday," the saloonkeeper said. "I told her the police or the dry agents had got her husband and the other man, unless somebody had taken them for a ride."

"Taking them for a ride," in the argot of the underworld, means an unwilling rendezvous with death.

Late last night Alex Samuels, partner of Duchovitz, announced by phone that he would talk to the police at the station. Duchovitz is held at the New City police station and will remain in police hands until after the inquest.

Late last night Herbert Mikovitch, bartender in the place, was arrested. He carried two revolvers and 100 rounds of ammunition.

Relative of Diamond Joe?

De-Laurentis is said to be a cousin of Diamond Joe Esposito, restaurant owner and politician.

Chief Schoemaker said there was no doubt that the bootlegging activities of the slain men caused the killings. Although primary campaign literature of Charles De Rosa, defeated aspirant for Republican nomination in the 2d senatorial district, was found with the bodies, Schoemaker was sure any political affiliations they had were not a cause for the shooting.

"Joe Solits may not have been in on this killing," he said, "but he owns a Lincoln sedan similar to the one found."

BY ORVILLE DWYER.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Herrin, Ill., April 15.—[Special.]—Fearing that he was coming down with the grip, President Coolidge canceled all his engagements at 11 o'clock this morning and on the advice of his physician went to bed.

After attending the President, Maj. James P. Coughlin, White House physician, returned to the executive offices, where he learned that one of the secretaries had announced that the President was suffering from an attack of indigestion. Not wishing to deny this statement, Dr. Coughlin went forth stating that the President was suffering from a slight cold.

The President, however, cleared up the matter when he surprised Secretary Everett Sanders and other callers in the executive offices by strolling in on them shortly after 4 o'clock. Asked how he felt, he explained that he had had a slight cold, but that after taking a nap felt much improved.

Just to show how much better he felt, the President told his callers about an owl which had invaded his bedroom the night before. The owl, of the ordinary screech owl variety, flew into the window and perched first on the bed post and then on a clothes hanger. The owl looked at the President and the President looked at the owl for a few moments, and then the intruder flew away.

Dozen Families Flee to Street at Flat Blaze

Members of a dozen families were driven from their apartments late last night when fire broke out in the basement of a three story brick apartment building at 2700-04 West Division street and spread up the front stairway to the roof, causing a loss of several thousand dollars before firemen who responded to a 2-11 alarm succeeded in getting the flames under control.

Morris Fink Jr., 6 years old, was left sleeping by his mother, Mrs. Anita Fink, in the third floor flat at 2700 West Division street while she went to work. During her absence the fire broke out in the basement and the child was rescued by Sgt. William Butler of the West North avenue station, who carried the boy down the rear stairs.

Verse in Pocket on Jaywalking; Car Kills Him

A man believed to be William Rockwell of Schoolcraft, Mich., was struck by a street car last night at Fourteenth and State streets and died soon afterwards at St. Luke's hospital. An identification card directed that Clarence Brown of Schoolcraft, which is in Kalamazoo county, be notified in case of accident.

In a note book, scrawled in pencil, was this: "Jay Walker was crossing the street when a street car knocked him off his feet."

He yelled like a cop. Who came on a cop. And assisted him on his feet like a cop.

J. Rosenwald, in Dole Line, Studies Poor

BY FLOYD GIBBONS.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

(Copyright, 1926, By The Chicago Tribune.)

VIENNA, April 15.—Julius Rosenwald occupied a place in the Vienna bread line today. The Tribune correspondent found the Chicago millionaire philanthropist surrounded by 1,000 jobless, moneyless men in the northwest railroad station, where the state payment of the doles for the unemployed is made daily.

The mail dole system and Vienna's unemployment situation first hand. The penniless out of work men who answered the kindly, sympathetic questions of this stranger whose German carried a foreign accent were unaware that they were talking to one of the richest men in America.

Secretary of Club.

"What work have you done?" Mr. Rosenwald asked a dark eyed, well dressed, middle aged man in the line moving slowly up toward the ticket windows through which the unemployed doles now are handed out daily to a large part of Vienna's army of 100,000 who are out of work. Mr. Rosenwald took his place in the line beside the man to prevent him from losing his position.

"I was secretary of a club, but have been out of work eight months," the man replied. "There are no jobs for clerical workers. We are all clerks or bookkeepers here today. Some of us held fine jobs in the banks. Some were bank directors, too. All are broke."

"How much does the state pay you?" Mr. Rosenwald asked.

"I am married, with two children, and receive 18 shillings a week," he answered. "Some get 14 shillings a week. The highest wage is 25 shillings a week." (A shilling is 14 cents.)

Live on $2.50 a Week.

"Can you live on it?" Mr. Rosenwald continued.

"It just buys food and the necessities," the unemployed man replied. "We would be unable to exist except for the fact that rent now is free in Vienna."

"Rent free?" the Chicagoan repeated. "Who pays that?"

"No one," the dole seeker replied. "The law protects the tenant now and rent went out when the Austrians crowned became worthless four years ago. Nobody has paid rent since."

"Thank you," Mr. Rosenwald said, meditatively scratching the gray hair over his right ear. He shook hands with the man and a crisp bill changed ownership unseen in the handclasp.

Others of the unemployed mass offered hearty explanations of the unemployment situation.

The unemployed present were cleanly shaven and wore white linen. Some carried boxes and some spats and spring overcoats.

Looks Wrong to Him.

"I cannot see how this situation could possibly work out," Mr. Rosenwald told me afterward in the automobile with his son William as we were leaving the old railroad station. "Something is wrong with economic conditions which permit such a terrible wastage of the work and effort of 100,000 working men and women every day. It is a waste no country could stand, much less Austria."

"I do not believe that doles are the solution, although humanity demands that something be done for these people. It appears to me that doles only increase the number of unemployed, first by making it less onerous to be out of work and secondly by placing an enormous burden of taxation upon the remaining industries in operation. Finally they succumb under it and the consequence is more people out of work. Statistics here show that unemployment has increased steadily in Austria and is higher than ever today."

Mr. Rosenwald left Vienna late tonight for Paris.

CONGRESSMEN IN LINE TO TELL OF VOLSTEAD EVILS

Wets Close Case at Senate Hearing.

The Wet and Dry Battle

Drys attack Gen. Lincoln C. Andrews for his testimony before the senate committee that the legalizing of beer under government control would aid enforcement of the Volstead act. His removal is demanded and Gen. Andrews replies that he is not advocating any change in the prohibition law.

Sixty members of congress file statement before senate committee, outlining the demoralization in their districts since the passage of the Volstead act. President of Carnegie institute, Pittsburgh, with 6,000 students, tells evils of moonshine among the young.

Leaders of wets and dries issue conflicting statements, each claiming victory in the showing against and for the success of the enforcement of the national prohibition act.

BY JAMES O'DONNELL BENNETT.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

(Copyright, 1926, By The Chicago Tribune.)

Washington, D. C., April 15.—[Special.]—For sheer appallingness of testimony, this, the tenth day of the United States senate's investigation of prohibition, was the most terrific in the long series of hearings.

It was the last day for the wet witnesses and they broke all their previous records for both quantity and significance of the evidence they gave. Sixty members of the house of representatives—one-seventh of that body—passed before the senate's investigators, rapidly took the oath, and then filed sworn statements on demoralization of conditions in their districts since the national prohibition act went into effect.

File Sensation on Sen. Don.

Sensation after senators' witness was released upon the senators' witness in official life, in the educational world, and in the ranks of prohibition enforcement itself.

That bootleg liquor has gotten into at least one United States veterans' hospital and is killing patients there, that prohibition Commissioner Baird of Pittsburgh is calling on students of Carnegie institute to spy on one another and then turn informers, and that boys ten years old have bought bootleg liquor in candy stores in Baltimore were among the sensations. They were followed by statements that Gen. Andrews, chief of prohibition enforcement, is employing men with criminal records as informers, that corn sugar, the production of which rose from 150,000,000 pounds in 1921 to over half a billion pounds in 1925, is being largely used in the manufacture of illicit liquor.

Wets Practically Through.

With the release of today's avalanche of evidence, the wets announced that they were "practically through"—except for the closing argument of their legal representatives and the introduction of a few more sworn statements. Their attitude, as expressed today by their floor manager, Col. Julien Coleman of Boston, is: "We have proved our case. Why should we continue to pile proof on proof? Frankly, from now on we shall relax."

In testimony at once specific and startling Representative Mary Teresa Norton, the first woman ever elected to congress by the Democratic party, led the rest today. She has been a social welfare worker for 15 years, has for ten years been president of the Day Nursery association of Jersey City, was leader of the movement for the erection of the first maternity hospital in her densely populated district, which is all in Jersey City.

Turn from Drink to Drugs.

Asked by Senator Reed about present drinking in the homes of her district, as compared with the days before prohibition, Mrs. Norton said: "Senator, I have not been able to find any improvement at all. On the contrary, in a number of cases, I have found that where men formerly drank they are now indulging in drugs. And, as one woman told me, she had been suffering all her life from a drunken husband, but now she was suffering from a crazy husband as the result of drugs, because he could not find the kind of liquor he wanted. That has been true in three cases out of fifteen that I investigated."

The senators especially wanted to know whether, as a welfare worker,

Mr. Norton thought prohibition had helped or hurt the morals of the people. Her answer left them in no doubt.

"I would say absolutely that it has ruined a great many of our young people, that their morals have been ruined as the direct result of carrying hip flasks to parties," she declared. "I have seen a great deal of that, senator, and it is because of that habit that I have been so intensely interested in this subject. If I thought for one moment that prohibition, or the Volstead act, was going to do what we hoped it would do, I would not be here today to advocate any change."

Then came the detail of her report on alleged prevalence of bootlegging whisky in a United States veterans' hospital—a detail which has come to her as a member of the house of representatives committee on world war veterans' legislation.

She read to the senators these extracts from a letter written to her by a soldier in the army:

"Bootlegging is the zone on in this hospital and has caused deaths, and the men who sold this poison whisky to the boys were given the goods, yet the commanding officer failed to do anything."

Charges Doctor Was Drunk.

"One night a patient here took very sick about 7:30 p. m., and every ward in the hospital and the grounds were searched for the officer of the day, but he could not be found. About 11:30 p. m. he got out of a car coming from town. The doctor was under the influence of whisky. But he was too late. Our comrades died at 9:45 p. m."

"I took the case up with the commanding officer. He told me to mind my own damn business or I would be cut off from any compensation and kicked out of the hospital."

Mrs. Norton did not give the senators the location of the hospital, saying that she would first report the letter to the house committee on world war veterans' legislation. Later the letter was shown to The Tribune correspondent, who was allowed to copy it. It was dated "U. S. Veterans' Hospital, Tuskegee, Ala., April 13, 1926." All the patients there are colored.

College Head Testifies.

Big bombshell No. 2 in this day's firing was cast by the nationally known educator, Samuel Harden Church, president of the 36 million dollar foundation, the Carnegie Institute of Pittsburgh. More than 6,000 students are under him. In the nearby University of Pittsburgh are 10,000 more, and at the Catholic university, also near by, a very large number.

"One of the things I should like to speak of," said Dr. Church, who was presented with a sword of honor for suppressing the Cincinnati riots of 1884, "is the conduct of the prohibition officers, the high officers in Pittsburgh, toward the student body there."

Mr. Baird has published widely an advertisement calling upon all these people to spy upon their associates and even to become informers for the benefit of the government in the cause of prohibition.

Reed Is Amazed.

Senator Reed (Dem., Mo.), who was presiding today, was so amazed by those words that he could hardly make his tongue go in the first part of the following colloquy:

"Do you mean," he faltered, "do you mean—that the students were called upon?"

DR. CHURCH—Yes, sir.

SENATOR REED—To spy upon each other?

DR. CHURCH—Yes, sir.

SENATOR REED—To spy upon other students?

DR. CHURCH—Yes, sir.

SENATOR REED—Who is Mr. Baird?

DR. CHURCH—He is the prohibition commissioner of Pittsburgh, and, I will say, a man of very high character and integrity, but he has become infected by the spirit of bigotry which seems to grow on all officers of this character of Mr. Wheeler's. And I might also say that he and Mr. Meyer, United States attorney at Pittsburgh, are constantly urging upon this great

Both Wets and Drys Satisfied

Washington, D. C., April 15.—[United News.]—Senator Morris Sheppard (Dem., Tex.), author of the 18th amendment, and Senator William Cabell Bruce (Dem., Md.), wet leader, today wrote for the United News the following statements regarding the evidence of the wets presented at the senate hearing on prohibition:

BY SENATOR W. C. BRUCE.
[Author of Resolution to Modify Eighteenth Amendment.]

I am gratified in the highest degree by the manner in which our case against prohibition has been made out. The upshot of the hearings so far has been to establish the fact that prohibition is unenforceable by any means that the federal government may employ, short of a colossal and monstrous system of tyranny which public opinion would never permit to be organized and brought into play.

The most noteworthy feature of the testimony was the confession of District Attorney Buckner, that prohibition cannot be enforced in New York, except by an expenditure of some $75,000,000 and a corps of 1,500 agents, and that such facilities of repression failing, it should be left to each state to say for itself, consistently with the provisions of the 18th amendment, what a nonintoxicating beverage is, and the confession of Gen. Andrews that only about 5 per cent of smuggled liquor is captured, and only 10 per cent of illicit plants seized, and that the use of a beer not repugnant to the provisions of the 18th amendment would promote temperance and law enforcement.

BY SENATOR MORRIS SHEPPARD.
[Author of Eighteenth Amendment.]

The wets have uttered failed to present a case which we appeal to the people or to congress.

Exaggerations have marked their testimony from beginning to end. For instance, one witness stated that 60,000,000 gallons of industrial alcohol were being diverted into intoxicating liquor every year, misstating the truth by nearly 50,000,000 gallons.

The attempt to show that the United States is a land saturated with illicit liquor is so contrary to common observation and common sense that it falls immediately to the ground. These wet drives have been in periodical progress since prohibition became effective, and they leave no impression whatever against prohibition or the judgment and sentiment of the people.

They will continue only so long as the finances behind them hold out. They have made no headway toward the liquidation of prohibition or the prohibition laws. If the wets imagine they have accomplished anything we challenge them to a vote at any time in either house of congress. They will find prohibition dominant and triumphant.

are very much greater, very much more severe, than they were before. "The girl of those days did not want to dance with a boy who had liquor on his breath. That is one of the tragedies of today, that she does not object to object today, or she cannot object to it."

Senator Reed was especially stirred by this statement of Dr. Church:

"Cases of forcible entry, outrage of one kind or another, and even murder are almost of daily occurrence in our city. In spite of Mr. Baird's efforts to employ men of good character to do his work, he discharges ten men every day because they succumb to the temptations of bribery and grafting or for other causes."

"The Pittsburgh prohibition officers recently invaded the Nixon restaurant, a very decent place, and compelled all of the guests, a company of about 300, who, in the old fashioned language, would be called ladies and gentlemen, to stand up."

Raiders Act Like Bandits.

"Then, with the manners of bandits, they passed their hands over the bodies of the men and, when some of the women protested, rudely pushed them back into their chairs. One man who demanded 'By what law?' was struck to the floor. Some six or seven hip flasks were found among that large company, but no liquor was found in the restaurant itself."

John T. Callan, Baltimore, member of the Maryland legislature and president of the Liberty Defense league, declared that prohibition was demolishing families in the tenement districts of Baltimore.

"My boy, who is about eight years of age," he said, "came in recently and said he would not play with a little boy who lived up the street because that little boy wanted him to drink whisky he had purchased at a candy store. In the tenement districts, where the houses are mostly rented, it is the exception when you do not find home brew apparatus."

When Gen. Andrews returned to the stand today he was drawn into a reluctant admission that he employs "snitchers" in his enforcement work.

"I suppose you know what they are," said Senator Reed, "people who get in with the criminal element and, in that way, undertake to learn who is manufacturing liquor and sometimes they are engaged in the business themselves as a cover. Do you have them?"

Hesitatingly, Gen. Andrews replied: "Well, not to any great extent. Only in rare instances, where the situation demands it."

Senator Reed read to Gen. Andrews this advice given members of the Hamilton County W. C. T. U. of Ohio by Thomas B. Jarvis, a district superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league:

"Associate with your neighbors who are not members of the Anti-Saloon league with them, and thus ascertain whether the liquor laws are being violated in private homes. We need such women, women of the type that are called nossey, and the nossey they are the better will be the results they will get. If positive evidence of liquor law violations is found you may rest assured such information will be welcomed by the Anti-Saloon league, and that such homes will be visited."

Senator Reed asked Gen. Andrews whether he had ever resorted to that means of getting information.

Repealists Snapping Policy.

Gen. Andrews—Senator Reed, you know that I have not done that! I am so far removed from anything like that that to me it is a joke.

Senator Reed—I thought as an officer and a gentleman you would repudiate that. You do not believe in that sort of policy, do you?

Gen. Andrews—Why, it has nothing to do with the enforcement of the federal prohibition law.

Senator Reed—I congratulate you. How many liquor prosecutions were brought last year, how much the production of American grapes has increased in the last three or four years, and how many people have been killed by prohibition agents, Gen. Andrews did not know. The last question he replied that he would furnish the figures.

To repeated questions as to whether he had in his employ men with criminal records, Gen. Andrews replied wearily: "I wouldn't say I haven't, but not as prohibition agents—only as informers."

Calls 2.75 Beer Harmless.

The grim character of most of the day's testimony was briefly relieved by the evidence on the harmlessness of 2.75 per cent beer, given by Representative John J. Kindred (Dem., N. Y.).

Representative Nathan D. Perlman (Rep., N. Y.) followed with this declaration:

"Boys and girls of today are drinking where boys and girls of years ago never thought of drinking. There are more people drinking today than ever before."

Member after member of the house uttered briefly his convictions and then filed with the senators a dozen or more pages, each, on conditions in his district which had made him a convert to modification of the Volstead act.

Andrews' Job Threatened by Drys for O. K. of Beer

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 15.—[Special.]—With his job in jeopardy as the result of his testimony yesterday that distribution of beer under government control would aid enforcement of the prohibition law, Gen. Lincoln C. Andrews, in charge of that enforcement, today hastened to announce in a signed statement that he is not advocating any change in the Volstead act.

Whether this assertion on the part of the prohibition czar will avert the wrath of the reform organizations, which in the past have had a big voice in the selection of the chief enforcement officers, is a question which is hanging in the balance tonight.

Attitude of President.

The testimony of Mr. Andrews was made on his own authority and in view of the fact that President Coolidge has consistently spoken in favor of the enforcement of the present law, it is believed that attacks made on the dry chief by the Anti-Saloon league will have weight with the President.

The testimony of Gen. Andrews created a real sensation among the drys and in political circles, which in his statement today has not served to lessen.

The Anti-Saloon league yesterday reserved comment pending the receipt of a statement by Mr. Andrews, and immediately upon its receipt today the legislative committee of the league went into executive session. Other reform organizations, including the Methodist Board of Temperance and Morals, debated the Andrews statement this afternoon, but no statements were issued.

Wheeler Is Cryptic.

"We may have something to say tomorrow," was the cryptic comment of Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel and spokesman for the league, when asked if the drys were going to ask for the act for Andrews.

The question which Mr. Andrews selected for the purpose of making his explanation was one of several along the same line which he was asked yesterday when he appeared before the senate subcommittee investigating prohibition. His statement reads:

"The hypothetical question put to me yesterday was: 'If nonintoxicating cereal beverages or beer could be distributed under government supervision for home consumption, and in bona fide hotels to be taken with meals, would this probably aid law enforcement?' I answered: 'Yes.'"

Not Advocating Change.

"I am not advocating any change in this law. On the contrary, we have recently perfected plans and are seeking additional authority and funds from congress to put them into effect which we confidently believe will enable us to wipe out the beer traffic this season."

"It is my task to enforce the law as written and to that end I am giving my sole attention."

F. Scott McBride, general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, issued a statement this afternoon asserting that the Illinois primary "is a very decisive dry victory."

Will "Demand" Removal.

Louisville, Ky., April 15.—[AP.]—The Anti-Saloon league of Kentucky "will demand" the President remove Lincoln C. Andrews, assistant secretary of the treasury, in charge of prohibition enforcement, Dr. A. C. Graham, state superintendent, notified national league officers today.

Dr. Graham said he had received numerous letters, telegrams, and telephone messages from out in the state demanding that the Kentucky league act at once in seeking the removal of Gen. Andrews.

The Women's Christian Temperance union is taking similar action, Dr. Graham quoted Mrs. Udie Day Pickett, state president, as saying.

Calls Dry Chief Unfit.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 15.—[AP.]—Lincoln C. Andrews was again taken to task today by E. S. Shumaker, superintendent of the Indiana Anti-Saloon league. Commenting on Andrews' statement made before the senate prohibition committee yesterday, Shumaker declared that this statement once more proves the unfitness of Andrews for the position he holds.

Thinks He Should Resign.

Boston, Mass., April 15.—[AP.]—Lincoln C. Andrews should resign if he is not in agreement with the law he is set to enforce, in the opinion of Mrs. Henry W. Peabody of Beverly, chairman of the women's national committee for law enforcement. Mrs. Peabody, who headed a delegation of women in support of the Volstead act at the senate prohibition hearing, arrived in Boston today. She criticized sharply the manner in which the hearing was conducted.

"Gen. Andrews' statement explains in part the criticism of his department," Mrs. Peabody said. "If he is not in agreement with the law which he is set to enforce, he should resign."

BILLION DOLLAR FARM MARKETING BILL INTRODUCED

Provides Comm Loan Fu

BY ARTHUR SEAR

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 15.—[Special.]—A billion dollar marketing of farm products bill, the product of farmers, to the house today in a Senate bill introduced by Senator Tamm, is designed to embody the principles of the farm marketing bill introduced in the house last week. The bill proposes to create a federal farm marketing board, to be composed of representatives of the various farm products industries, to be authorized to issue bonds for the purpose of financing the marketing of farm products. The bill also provides for the creation of a federal farm marketing fund, to be composed of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds, and to be used for the purpose of financing the marketing of farm products. The bill is expected to pass the Senate in the near future.

BILLION DOLLAR
FARM MARKETING
BILL INTRODUCEDProvides Commission and Loan Fund.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., April 15.—(Special.)—A billion dollar plan to finance the marketing of farm products under government direction, so as to increase the profits of farmers, was presented to the house today in a bill by Representative Tinscher (Rep., Kas.) designed to embody the views of the Coolidge administration on farm relief.

The bill proposes an appropriation from the federal treasury of $100,000,000 for loans to cooperative associations marketing farm products and the issuance of debentures to the amount of $1,000,000,000 to finance marketing operations on a vast scale under the direction of a farmers' marketing commission appointed by the President.

In accordance with the views of the President and Secretary of Agriculture Jardine the bill avoids the devices of the Dickinson and the corn belt bills by asking the surplus of the domestic market and raising the price of the remainder to the American consumer. Those devices the administration regards as a species of price fixing.

The aim of the Tinscher bill is to bring about higher prices on farm products through regulation of production and marketing so that the market never will be glutted and farmers never compelled to sell their products for an inadequate return.

The Tinscher bill also omits provision for an equalization fee assessed on farm commodities to cover marketing losses, which is an essential feature of the Dickinson and corn belt surplus control bills. The administration is against the equalization fee, regarding it as a commitment of nearly all pricing schemes and believing that in any event it would be regarded by the farmers as a tax and, therefore, would be highly unpopular.

In place of an equalization fee, however, the Tinscher bill proposes that a cooperative association shall repay loans made by the marketing commission "by imposing of nearly all pricing schemes and believing that in any event it would be regarded by the farmers as a tax and, therefore, would be highly unpopular."

The Tinscher bill provides for the establishment in the treasury of a farmers' marketing commission loan fund, in which repayments of loans made by the commission shall be replaced and reserved until 1930, "for the use of the commission in making such loans as provided for in this act."

For the expenses of the commission an appropriation of $500,000 is authorized.

The bill provides for the creation of a federal farm advisory council in the manner proposed by the committee of twenty-two representing the business conference of corn belt states. The advisory council is to consist of three members from each of the twelve federal land bank districts elected by the farm organizations and cooperative marketing associations in each district.

One of the principal functions of the advisory council is to nominate to the President eighteen persons for appointment to the farmers' marketing commission, which corresponds to the federal farm board of the Dickinson and corn belt bills.

The marketing commission is to consist of the secretary of agriculture and six members appointed by the President from the eighteen nominated by the advisory council. These appointments are to be confirmed by the senate. Each member is to be an expert in his line—one on live stock, another on grain, another on dairy and poultry products, and others on cotton, tobacco, fruit, and vegetables.

The commission is authorized "to determine by surveys made, upon petition by any cooperative marketing association, whether there exists or may exist during the ensuing twelve months a surplus in excess of normal domestic requirements of any agricultural commodity handled by such association and report its findings."

Offered as Basis to Work Upon.

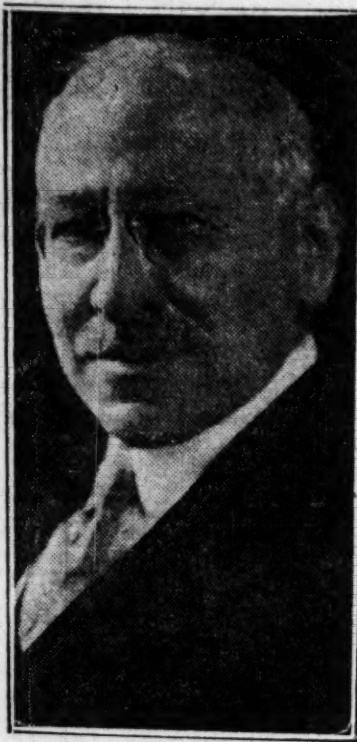

Then the commission is authorized to advise on the marketing of the commodity of which there is a surplus, on agreements among the producers for the restriction of production, and on the provision of "pools, exchanges, special funds, or other cooperative undertakings in prevention or disposition of a surplus of such commodity."

In some quarters doubt was expressed that the Tinscher bill would receive the support of the administration, inasmuch as it goes beyond the proposals for solving the surplus problem outlined in the letter of Secretary Jardine last Tuesday. Mr. Tinscher endeavored to induce the house committee on agriculture, of which he is a member, to take his bill as a basis for the measure the committee expects to report within a few days.

"My bill," said Mr. Tinscher, "is in entire accord with the letter of the secretary of agriculture. Moreover, it is in accord with the views of a great many of the members of the committee on agriculture, as expressed during the hearings."

"I am convinced that there is no possible chance for a bill carrying an equalization fee to become a law at this session of congress."

COSTELLO HANGS
TODAY; BITTER AS
STAY IS REFUSEDColored Slayer Will Die,
Too, for Murder.

The extreme penalty for murder will be paid this morning by Raymond Costello, 22 years old, an ex-convict, and Charles Hobbs, colored. They are to be hanged at 9 o'clock. Costello for the murder of Madeline White, a girl he attacked and strangled. Hobbs for the killing of Mrs. Betty Barnett, his landlady, whom he robbed of 75 cents after strangling her.

Last minute pleas to Gov. Small for Costello failed. The governor had said early in the evening he would discuss with members of the pardon board the advisability of considering any new claims of grounds for delay. At midnight he had departed without taking action.

Mother Makes Final Call.

Costello's mother and father called to say good-by to him at the death cell. Mabel Patterson, whose three months old son is also Costello's son, was present with the baby. Costello clung to his mother's neck through the bars, both weeping, while Hobbs, who has soiled himself with religion, laughed and chatted with a friend, side by side with the Costellos.

When it came time for the visitors to depart Costello endeavored to kiss his baby but collapsed. He was returned to the death chamber where he spent the rest of the night protesting his innocence.

Just as Soon Hang.

Costello was bitter in the afternoon when informed a stay had been refused. He continually berated his lawyer. "That's damn funny that a stay has not arrived," he said. "I suppose, though, I might just as well swing as lay in the penitentiary for the rest of my life on a bum rap."

The doomed man still insists that Andrew Brick, a former pal of his at Pontiac, who was a witness for the state, was the last man to be with the White girl. He contends he left Brick with the girl and went to his home.

Attorney Rocco De Stefano served notice on the state's attorney's office yesterday that he would apply this morning before Judge Emanuel Eller for a stay of execution for John Walton Winn, who is sentenced to be hanged April 23. He will appeal the case of Grandma Eliza Nuebaum's affinity to the Supreme court, he said.

LOONEY SEEKS WRIT OF ERROR
IN MURDER CASE

Springfield, Ill., April 15.—John P. Looney, former newspaper publisher of Rock Island, serving a term of four years in Joliet for murder in connection with the underworld war in Rock Island, has applied to the state Supreme court for a writ of error and supersedeas. The record in the case, with the formal motion, was filed today and will be presented to the court tomorrow.

If the motion is allowed and Looney is able to furnish the bond fixed by the court, he will be at liberty until his case is reviewed by the Supreme court. State Senator James J. Barbour of Chicago, who aided in the prosecution of Looney, anticipated today's move and has filed in the court a statement opposing the motion.

Salome Needs
Plenty Legs to Put Show Over

(Copyright: 1926: By the New York Times.)

LONDON, April 15.—Because she wanted her to wear more clothes in the role of Salome, Frances Carson would like to have the head of the lord chamberlain served to her on a platter. She indignantly refused last night to wear the shawl offered by the producer as a result of the lord chamberlain's order. She is appearing here in "Katerina," by Andrieu, at the Barnes theater.

"The lord chamberlain has said I must wear a dress down to my knees," Miss Carson said today. "As all our modern dresses reach above the knees, this strikes me as something exceptionally absurd. In plenty of other London plays girls wear much fewer clothes than I. If I used this shawl the effect would be worse than that of the criticized garments. I designed the dress myself and thought it really far too modest for the scene. I was really surprised when the request was made."

The bishop of London has been invited to see Katerina, and Miss Carson hopes he will like her clothes better than the lord chamberlain.

DIVORCEE DENIES
MRS. JENNINGS'
CHARGES IN SUITFriendship for Him Purely Intellectual, She Says.

Forced against her will to testify, Mrs. Laila Keithley, pretty blonde divorcee living at the Sheridan Surf hotel, yesterday told of her friendship for David L. Jennings, wealthy railway supplies manufacturer.

Mrs. Keithley was subpoenaed into Judge George F. Rush's court at the instance of Mrs. Patience Jennings, 1249 Ashbury avenue, Hubbard Woods, who is asking separate maintenance from Jennings, charging him with having fallen in love with Mrs. Keithley.

Only a Chattering Friendship.

Her acquaintance with Jennings never progressed beyond the conversational stage, Mrs. Keithley declared. Although they met frequently, often in her apartment, they never did more than to discuss intellectual topics, she said.

"Yes, we sometimes breakfasted together in my room," she admitted under cross-examination. "But the door was always open, fastened with a chain."

"We never spoke of love. He never showed the least sign of affection toward me or I toward him. We never kissed or held hands."

Wife Testifies Otherwise.

Contradictory evidence was furnished by Mrs. Jennings and by Attorney Robert Shanner. The wife said she saw her husband kiss Mrs. Keithley as he was taking leave of her one evening. The lawyer, who occupied a room near Mrs. Keithley's in the hotel, declared that Jennings and Mrs. Keithley spent almost every evening together in her room for a month.

Jennings then testified, denying that he was in love with Mrs. Keithley. He accused his wife of mental cruelty. The judge announced he would make a decision today.

MEAN COPS NIP
YELLOW KID'S
LATEST VENTURE

Arrest of two men yesterday, police believe, dealt an unkind blow to the latest money making scheme of Joseph R. (Yellow Kid) Weil, engineer, it was charged, at the expense of numerous building contractors. A hundred contractors already have been victimized in amounts of about $750 each, it was said.

The pair taken into custody are Eugene Schallarie and Jack Serima. A third confederate, Sam Mitnick, is being sought. Schallarie was arrested at the Sheridan Trust and Savings bank and Serima was taken in a room at the Commonwealth hotel, where, slightly the Yellow Kid is reported to have tutored his protégés in the dollar winning art.

At the Grand Crossing station several contractors, including Adams Duran, 2540 Cermak avenue; Hilmer J. Pomeroy, 7555 South Michigan avenue; and Emil W. Wilney, 6528 West 38th street, renewed their acquaintance with Schallarie and Serima. The two, police were told, had represented themselves as agents of the Building Trade Advertising association, a creation of the Weil imagination, which offered free advertising and asked only 2 percent of the business obtained through the ads.

That was fair enough, the contractor reasoned, when shown an apparently reputable bank account and financial statement. Then the contract was signed—and there, unwittingly, the party of the other part signed a check concealed by the contract in the space above the dotted line. And that was how the money went.

GANGSTER WAR OVER ALCOHOL KILLS TWO MORE

Slain Men Had Invaded McErlane District.

Ivachovits describes. These men were killed because they left the west side to peddle booze on 51st street.

It was a warning to the Sicilian gangs of the Gennas that the south side is not their territory, Schoemaker added.

Woman Confirms Warning.

The theory that Ralph Sheldon was given a similar notice was corroborated by Mrs. George J. Reddy of 6549 South Rockwell street. She saw the two cars driven up to the curb on Saturday night. Sheldon's home—although he is said to have stayed away from it for the last two months—is at 6553 South Rockwell street. One man, tall and wearing a light hat, left the car and the bodies and went to the Sheldon door.

The stranger rapped, but there was no answer. The police believe that he intended to show Sheldon the work of the gangsters.

Hundreds of persons passed the death car since Saturday, but the presence of the bodies was not suspected until a squad under the command of Sgt. Michael Durkin was sent to learn whether the machine was stolen. Mrs. Reddy had reported it.

When the police opened the rear door of the car they saw the bodies, which had been partially covered with a dirty blanket. The clothing of both men was stained with soil, indicating that they had been taken out for their execution and then dragged back and tossed in.

Last night a search, led by Capt. John Stege of the detective bureau, was under way for Soltis and his friends. The police were aided by John De Laurentis, policeman of the West Chicago avenue station and a cousin of the slain Frank.

Left Three Children.

Tucello's cottage was visited by the police. They found his three children, Mary, 10; Lempi, 6, and Ralph, 3, weeping. The widow was found a little later with Mrs. Mary De Laurentis, aunt of the other man killed. Mrs. De Laurentis, who said she was a sister of Diamond Joe Esposito, tried to comfort Mrs. Tucello, who became hysterical on hearing that her husband was dead.

In the Tucello home was a large plaster plaque of Esposito, with a testimonial of his political record inscribed under it. In the cellar were ten barrels of wine. Chief Schoemaker also discovered a number of Tucello's notebooks containing addresses and telephone numbers, many of which were in the vicinity of the Sheldon home.

Police records show that Tucello was wounded on July 7, 1924, and was taken to the Jefferson Park hospital. He declined to tell how it occurred. At the time it was assumed he was shot because of a Melrose Park booze feud.

YUCATAN PASSES A DIVORCE LAW WITH KNOTS IN IT

(Chicago Tribune From Service.)

MERIDA, Yucatan, April 15.—The Yucatan congress yesterday passed a new divorce law providing for six months' residence and services on the defendant. No grounds are required and the application may be made by both parties or by one of them. Divorce proceedings, under the new law, are left in the hands of the civil courts when only one party petitions, but when application is made by both parties the civil registry retains jurisdiction.

Apartment of Heiress

Robbed of $40,000 Gems

New York, April 15.—[Special.]—Two strands of pearls and two brooches of diamonds and oriental pearls and diamonds disappeared yesterday from the apartment at 71 Park avenue of Miss Muriel H. Wurtz-Dunder, an heiress well known in New York and Philadelphia society. Heirlooms from a grandmother, they are valued at $40,000. The police believe a window washer rifled the dressing table in which they lay, overlooking several other pieces of jewelry.

MYSTERY VEILS DEATH OF BANDIT SHERIFF SLAYER

Officials last night were seeking to unravel numerous puzzling features surrounding the activities of a lone bandit, who, fleeing for an unknown reason in a stolen automobile, was fatally wounded by a pursuing deputy, whom he in turn shot to death.

As a finale to the three hour drama, the bandit's body, riddled with bullets, was found in a ditch in Broadview, miles from the scene of his gun battle near the village of Orland, Ill., with Walter Fisher, the deputy.

Last night the body, at the Edward Elms Jr. hospital in Maywood, had been identified as that of Santo Calabrese, 35, 2253 Wentworth avenue.

It was near midnight Tuesday when Dr. E. G. McMahon of Mokena, driving to his home from Joliet, was halted by a young bandit, who took his car.

A half hour later Dr. McMahon, accompanied by Deputy Fisher and Barney Hostert, Mokena garage man, had pursued and halted the bandit at 1434 street and Keane avenue. Here the bandit killed Fisher and escape after being wounded.

WET REPUBLICAN PLANK WILL VIE WITH BRENNAN'S

Crowe Chiefs Plan Moist County Platform.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

Crowe-Barrett-Galpin winners in Tuesday's Republican primaries do not intend to let George Brennan and the Democrats have a monopoly control on the anti-Volsteadism issue in Cook county—not by a little brown jugful.

A wet plank dripping with dew, was planned yesterday to be nailed into the Cook county Republican platform that will be adopted by the county convention Monday morning in the Sherman hotel. With evidences on every side that anti-Volsteadism is as strong an issue with the public as anti-world court, and perhaps stronger, the victorious G. O. P. leaders concluded they could hardly sing loud on one issue and be silent on the other. So in the coming campaign they propose to sock prohibition as hard as the world court.

Avoid Downstate Fuss.

To avoid any controversy with dry downstate Republicans, the Cook county organization is planning not to participate in the state convention at Springfield next Friday, just as it refrained from attending two years ago. There will be two Republican county conventions, one based on the 1916 committee, the other on the 1920, and both this time are under the Crowe-Barrett control. It is proposed not to elect delegates to the state meeting or to elect them as a perfunctory form but instruct them not to trouble to make the trip to Springfield.

If the Cook county victors took a wet plank down to the state capital the theory is it would simply serve to stir up strife and trouble, so out of political delicacy and in the interests of party harmony the local winners now propose nonparticipation in the state party council.

Champer for Wet Plank.

Observers point to it as another instance of the revolt of the industrial centers against country domination, but the leaders say it is merely to preserve peace in the family and to keep the kitchenware from being thrown through the window.

The call for a wet Cook county plank amounted yesterday to almost a clamor. The election being over, headquarters gave up some of its rooms, and the group leaders had hardly got back to the corner room in the Sherman containing the great bronze elephant when victorious candidates began bawling in the demands that they be given a modification plank to stand upon to keep the Democrats from knocking the props from under.

The moisture content of the rival platforms now has the politicians in both parties in a state of great agitation. The Democrats, under the leadership of George Brennan for senator, whose campaign is hailed as the first referendum in Illinois on prohibition, have had the wet end of the issue to themselves so far, except for moist outbreaks here and there among Republican contestants in the primaries.

TIME TO THROW IN THE SPONGE IF THEY WANT TO PREVENT A KNOCKOUT

The Democrats plan a state platform that will be wet as the Atlantic and the great appeal is to be that the time for academic discussion is now past, and that the campaign gives the voter a chance to sling a vote where it will amount to real action in Washington.

Their present hope and expectation is that the Republican state platform will ignore the wet and dry issue, so far as a direct pronouncement goes.

The Cook county Republican candidates and leaders, in mapping out a wet county plank, gave it these tentative contents:

Modification of the Volstead act.

Government regulation on a light wines and beer basis.

Against any return of the saloon.

Unless the tentative plans are changed, the Cook county Republican platform will be quite as moist as the Democratic.

McMenimen Renominated for U. S. Railway Board

Walter L. McMenimen, railroad member of the United States labor board, announced last night that he had been nominated by President Coolidge for reappointment. He said that both the railroad and labor members of the board have to be endorsed by railroad executives and labor organizations.

WET SENTIMENT SHOWN IN STATE CONGRESS VOTE

Four wet candidates in the Republican contest for congressmen at large last Tuesday polled a combined vote that would have enabled one of them to grab off one of the two nominations belated returns indicate. The four candidates who made their campaigns for modification of the Volstead act received a total vote of 356,351.

With the exception of one, W. H. H. Miller, who gained notoriety several years ago as a director of registration in Gov. Small's cabinet by his conviction for trafficking in physicians' licenses, the wet candidates were political unknowns. They were Fred W. Beach, Harvey Sindlinger, and Julius K. Sykes. Against them Congressmen at Large Yates and Rathbone, both well known political figures, were easy winners.

Former Gov. Yates, with 891 precincts missing, led Rathbone 239,184 to 210,277. The wet vote was divided as follows: Beach, 80,324; Miller, 151,734; Sindlinger, 79,413; Sykes, 54,589.

VOTE CANVASS OPENS; RIVAL CAMPS WATCH

With all political camps represented by watchers, the canvass of Tuesday's primaries began yesterday at the election commission's office. Five teams were put to work yesterday and ten more will be added. The canvass will be completed in about ten days or two weeks, Chairman Fred V. Maguire said. Few discrepancies or important errors were discovered in returns canvassed yesterday. Minor mistakes that made no changes in results kept all hands busy.

Smith 606,270, McKinley 490,590, Latest Figures

A recapitulation of returns on the Republican nomination for United States senator gives Frank L. Smith a majority of 115,639 over Senator McKinley in 5,709 of the state's 6,053 precincts. The figures were: Smith, 606,270; McKinley, 490,590. Smith's majority in Cook county, with 12 precincts missing, was 42,582, the vote being 249,961 to 207,379.

DR. I. H. CHILCOTT OBTAINS LICENSE TOWED IN WEST

Dr. Israel Henry Chilcott of Kenilworth yesterday obtained a marriage license at San Francisco, Cal., to wed Clara Kaempfer of Chicago. According to the information given the county clerk, Miss Kaempfer was divorced last week in Reno.

At Dr. Chilcott's home last night it was said he departed last Monday for California without announcing his marriage intentions. It was thought he had received word that his intended bride was divorced and hastened to join her.

The marriage license gave the name of the bride's father as Fred Kaempfer of Chicago. Her family lived in Evanston. It was learned, and at the apartment they occupied it was said last night they had left for California on April 11.

Members of Local No. 134, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, who have reached the age of 65 and have been affiliated with the local for fifteen years and with the union for twenty years, may retire on pensions of $50 a month, payable from the union treasury.

The plan, sponsored by Michael J. Boyle, business agent of the local, was approved at a meeting held last night in the Union Park temple, Washington boulevard and Ogden avenue.

It was said that this is the first time a local union has adopted an old age pension scheme. Local No. 134 has 6,000 members.

Members of the local who are past 60 years old are permitted to work for less than the regular scale of wages under a provision adopted last night.

3:30 p. m.

NEXT Sunday will mark the beginning of a series of three concerts destined to have a profound influence in the music life of Chicago. Moriz Rosenthal, conceded by ablest critics to be the Master of master pianists, will begin his series of three historical recitals with a program featuring music by Bach, Handel, Couperin, Rameau, Scarlatti, Haydn, Mozart and Beethoven.

Mr. Rosenthal, who is engaged to hold ten Technic and Interpretation classes for advanced pianists at the Gunn School of Music, brings to present day interpretations the authoritative touch of the golden age in which Liszt was a dominating figure. Rosenthal studied with Liszt, associated with Brahms, Rubenstein and other outstanding musical personalities of the time, and delivers his musical message with an authority and technical mastery possessed by no other pianist in the world today.

Of greatest significance also, to teachers, students and all others who love music in the home, is the fact that Rosenthal uses only the Knabe Piano in his concerts and teaching. He especially praises its sonority, "which allows the artist to bring out all shades, gradations and tints, from the softest whisper to the most thunderous climaxes."

Rosenthal's Ampico recordings, which you may hear on the KNABE-AMPICO, bring you the playing of the master just as you will hear it in these wonderful historic recitals. Call on us for any further information desired.

BUTLER DENIES COERCING BOOZE CASE WITNESSES

2 Admit Changing Stories After Reprimand.

San Diego, Cal., April 15.—(AP)—A rear admiral seized the helm of the cocktail court martial of Col. Alexander S. Williams just as it was being steered into the port of final arguments here today. He swung the case back into the stormy waters of testimony bearing on Brig. Gen. Smedley D. Butler's alleged attempts to browbeat his subordinates into saying Col. Williams was drunk at the Hotel Del Coronado on the night of March 6 last.

The rear admiral was Thomas Washington, commandant of the Twelfth naval district and president of the court which is trying Col. Williams.

Butler Denies Charges.

Gen. Butler himself took the stand and denied categorically he had coerced or attempted to coerce his subordinates into making statements that Col. Williams was drunk. But the general was followed by other officers who swore they had changed essential portions of previous statements.

One of these officers was Capt. Clifton R. Cates, a member of Col. Williams' staff and of the colonel's defense counsel.

Capt. Cates said he made one written statement of the Coronado cocktail episode at the request of Gen. Butler in which he asserted he had seen nothing unusual in the colonel's behavior except that he was "unsteady on his feet," but that after having been reprimanded by the general for "equivocating," he had prepared another statement containing the phrase "unsteady on his feet, which was caused by being drunk, sick, or 'doped'."

Tells of Warning.

"The general called me into his office after reading my first statement," Cates testified, "and said: 'Don't you know Col. Williams was drunk? Well, I know he was drunk. I saw him take four or five drinks. Now I want you to know you youngsters will have to come clean or you'll get into trouble also. I know you are trying to be loyal to Col. Williams and I respect you for it. But I want the truth about this.'"

Lieut. Beverly S. Roberts said he and several others were called on the carpet by Gen. Butler and told their statements were highly unsatisfactory.

2 POLICE KILLERS LOSE PLEA FOR HABEAS CORPUS

Judge William N. Gemmill in Criminal court yesterday refused to issue a habeas corpus writ sought in behalf of Otto Hacker and Richard Evans, slayers of Policeman Edward C. Pinegan, who were captured recently in Midland, Tex.

Hacker and Evans reached Chicago on Wednesday night in custody of Chicago detectives and the writ was requested by Attorney Frank A. McDonnell in an attempt to have the prisoners transferred from the custody of the police to that of the sheriff.

Q. J. Schott, assistant state's attorney, requested that the prisoners be held at the detective bureau until 11 o'clock today so they might be viewed by a number of robbery victims.

Both Hacker and Evans declare they were drunk at the time of the killing of Pinegan. Evans is a paroled convict.

RULES ICE WATER IS NOT BOOZE; FREES BELLHOPS

United States Commissioner Henry C. Bettler yesterday ruled that ice water is not booze and that bellhops are not bootleggers if the ice and the water, one or the other, or both, later become integral parts of a whiskey highball.

The commissioner was called upon to make the decision in the case of the government against two employees of the Claridge hotel, arrested two months ago in a raid by two prohibition agents who posed as guests of the establishment.

Commissioner Bettler discharged the bellhops and set April 22 for the arraignment of the manager of the hotel and the alleged staff bootlegger.

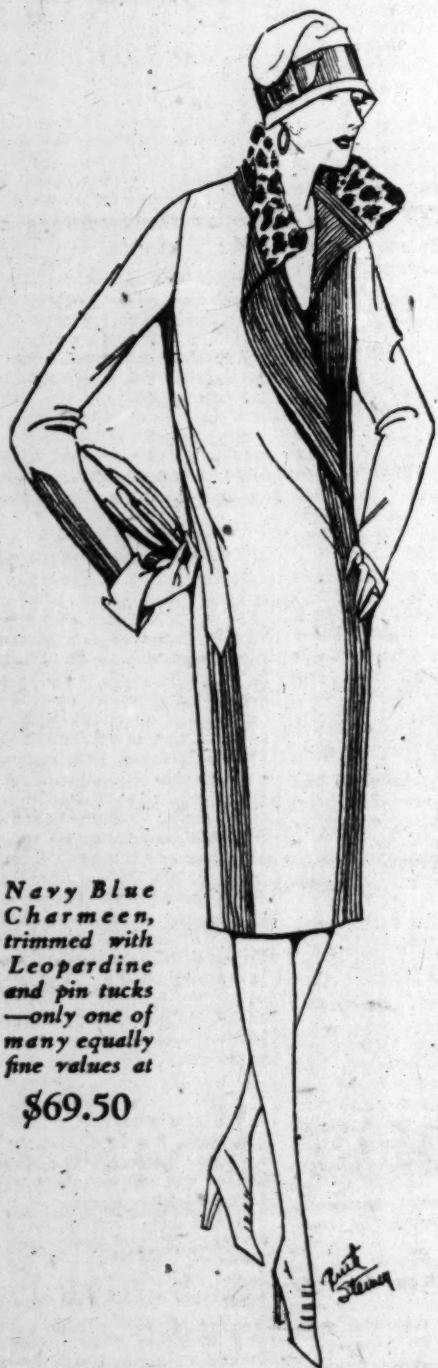

ANOTHER A. & P. STORE ROBBED. Miss Eva Carpenter, 5220 Turner avenue, manager of the Atlantic and Pacific Tea company store, 2525 West Fifty-ninth street, was robbed of $10 by a man.

PEGGY JOYCE HAS CHANCE FOR 5TH FLING AT BLISS

Mrs. Comstock Seems to Be Figuring on Divorce.

Perhaps Peggy Hopkins Joyce will get her fifth fling at domesticity with Stanford E. Comstock after all, aided by none other than the present Mrs. Comstock, who resides at 106 East Oak street.

The real estate man's wife yesterday disclosed that friends in Florida are advising her to start a counter suit for divorce, demanding the highest possible settlement. Telegrams from Miami Beach, from a mysterious "Bob," intimating that "things are developing as anticipated," were received by Mrs. Comstock in the afternoon.

Be Careful, Bob Warns.

"Be extraordinarily careful in communicating with me," the telegram warned. "Now is the biggest chance of your lifetime, so go right to it."

Suggesting that Florenz Ziegfeld may be in communication with her next week, the mysterious "Bob," who said he was working as her publicity manager, warned Mrs. Comstock not to answer questions concerning his identity.

"Don't be afraid to say how you lived here with him and how he abused you," Bob advised. "How I wish I could be near to help you in your lifetime opportunity to get what is coming to you!"

Bob, it was learned, is the friend who wired Mrs. Comstock that her husband would leave Miami this morning for New York.

Tells of Her Remarriage.

Mrs. Comstock denied she was the Edna Comstock who filed suit for separate maintenance from Comstock in September, 1916. She said she married Comstock in 1919, was divorced in September, 1923, in Detroit, and remarried him four months later in Cleveland.

Their adopted son, eight years old, is with Comstock's mother in New York, Mrs. Comstock said.

That Comstock knew his divorce obtained recently in Florida was illegal was proved three weeks ago, Mrs. Comstock said, when they lived together in a New York hotel. It was during this time he met Peggy, Mrs. Comstock said, and when he left for Florida the actress took the next train south.

EUGENE McLAUGHLIN INDICTED.

Eugene McLaughlin, gangster, was indicted yesterday for assault with a deadly weapon for attempting to rob Walter J. Newman, 4654 Argyle street, a jewelry salesman, of $50,000 of jewelry.

How Her Thin Weak Boy Grew Strong and Took On Weight

My boy was run down—just about skin and bones, and no appetite, writes Mrs. Baker of Boston.

"I am writing you in the hopes that other Mothers will read this voluntary testimonial regarding McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets. My boy, Emanuel, was run down completely, just about skin and bones; also irritable and with no appetite.

"I noted a wonderful improvement in him while taking your tablets, and purchased three more boxes. His appetite picked up, and he is now sturdy and strong. A cheerful youngster and a happy mother want to thank you.

"You may print this at any time or anywhere you wish."

MRS. ALBERT E. BAKER, "33 Ridgewood St., Boston, Massachusetts."

As a body builder, an appetite creator, and to make weak, skinny boys and girls sturdy, strong and full of energy there is nothing like Cod Liver Oil—any physician will tell you that.

But it's vile, horrible stuff to take, and is apt to upset any stomach, so now doctors are prescribing, and wise parents are buying, McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—sugar coated, and as easy to take as candy.

Mothers, if any of your children are weak, thin or puny, give them these tablets, as directed for 30 days, and watch them gain flesh and health from day to day—they seldom fail, but if the unusual should happen and you are not satisfied with results—your druggist is authorized to return your money.

Be sure—always—to get the original and genuine McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—40 tablets 60 cents, at Owl Drug Co. or any druggist.

AT 72 FACES REDS SHE BETRAYED FOR 30 YEARS

Grandmother of Secret
Police Bold Near Death.

(Copyright, 1926, By The New York Times.)
MOSCOW, April 15.—Since Mrs. Caliaux won acquittal on the eve of the great war for the slaying of Joseph Calmette, whom she shot to death in his own office, there has been no public trial for a woman in Europe to compare with that now being held here to judge Anna Egorovna Serbrakova, whom the Russians call "the grandmother of the czar's secret police."

For upwards of thirty years this woman occupied the extraordinary position of being at once an advanced revolutionary with the nihilist salon attended by all the revolutionary elements and a spy of the czar's political police. Until a year ago no one ever suspected that she was anything but a rather scatterbrained, though ardent, worker for the revolution.

Conducts Own Defense.

The case is being tried in the wide, low theater of the communist institute. On a little stage there is a red draped table where sit three judges, facing them on the left and sitting just across the table is the prisoner with the defendants appointed by the state behind her. But she conducts her own defense. In a low, husky voice she replies to the accusations of the public prosecutor standing on the right. The public huddles in to listen, sitting or standing on the tables below the stage, which are supposed to be reserved for the soviet press.

Yet there must be some strange satisfaction for the Russian soul in this dancing on death's tight rope, where a hair's breadth slip means instant destruction. For she is still undefeated, this old woman, though half blind, trembling, and deserted by her children, worn by eight months in prison, and so utterly alone to face the least pitiful of Russian judges.

Betrayer of High Bids.

Some of the leading bolsheviks—Anatole Lunacharski, now minister of education and fine arts; M. Smidovich, one of the oldest members of the communist party and a close friend of Lenin; M. Muratov, now secretary of the Moscow section of the communist party; and M. Smirnov, who is also now a commissar—were her intimates whom at different times she callously betrayed to prison or exile.

Until last year she received a pension from the soviet government as one of the old trustees of the revolutionary movement. Her connection with the secret police was only revealed by accident. A man named Eshkolof was arrested on a charge of former police activities, and to save his own skin told Mrs. Serbrakova's real story.

So now this woman of 72 is being

U. S. FILM CENSORSHIP URGED AND ASSAILED AT HOUSE HEARING

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., April 15.—(Special.)—Federal regulation and censorship of motion picture films entered into interstate commerce, as proposed in a bill offered by Representative Upshaw (Dem., Ga.), which would license the shippers and set up a drastic standard of morals for the films, to be maintained by a national board of censors, was variously assailed and urged by witnesses before the house education committee today.

Pitted against Lee F. Hammer, director of the Russell Sage foundation, who asserted that the motion picture industry has demonstrated its ability to protect the public without regulation, were Canon William Sheele Chase of Brooklyn, N. Y., Dr. Frank E. Jensen, pastor of the Mount Zion Lutheran church in Chicago, and Mrs. Howard Bennett of Baltimore. With them was Representative Upshaw, who insisted that the national censorship would never have been proposed if film producers themselves had maintained "a high standard of wholesomeness."

Dr. Jensen asserted he favored "national regulation of a national product," and denied that there could be any comparison between regulation of film standards and regulation of liquor traffic, pointing out that "anybody can make hooch, but anybody cannot make films."

tried for her life. For there was no sentiment in her treachery. She lived comfortably and well on carol gold by the betrayal of her friends, this frequent of the nihilist salons whom they nicknamed "Maggie," because she chattered so continually and asked so many questions.

Dominates the Scene.

Mrs. Serbrakova easily dominates the proceedings, the gray haired, toothless old creature, wearing an ugly black cloak, but garrulous as ever, never failing to reply to the prosecutor's questions. Her face is a yellowish gray, but the features are so strong and so masculine that one begins to understand how she gambled thus long and thus daringly with death.

Mrs. Serbrakova knows they are all against her—knows that her condemnation is certain. But her weak voice never falters, her thin lips never quiver, her face of faded bronze never changes. It is a triumph of human courage in the face of absolute disaster.

BARE POUND DEAD IN BED.

George Schneider, 3 months old, 450 North Troy street, was found dead in bed yesterday morning by her mother. Death was caused supposedly by heart disease.

BROOKHART, AT HOME, SAYS IOWA HAS NO SENATOR

Washington, Ia., April 15.—(AP.)

MINISTER WHO TESTED RIOT ACT IS FREED ON BAIL

Sheriff Relents in Textile Strike Case.

Hackensack, N. J., April 15.—[Special.]—Norman Thomas, New York Socialist leader and former Presbyterian minister, who was arrested in Garfield when he sought to test the riot act, was released in $10,000 bail today by Justice of the Peace Louis Hargreaves after an effort was made to send him back to the Bergen county jail for another night on a technicality.

Bail of $10,000 was furnished by a surety company prior to Mr. Thomas' arraignment. When he was held to await the action of the grand jury Thomas started to leave the office under the impression that he was free on bail. A deputy sheriff, instead, told Thomas to accompany him to the county jail, explaining that the first $10,000 bail did not cover the arraignment.

Finally Accepts Bail.

For a time it appeared that the authorities would insist he furnish an additional $10,000, although he was held on but one charge. The presence of Mrs. Thomas, who rose from a sickbed to call on her husband, apparently softened the sheriff's representative, and the first $10,000 was transferred to cover the bail fixed after the arraignment.

In the meantime the textile strikers held a mass meeting at Wallington, in Bergen county, just across the line from Garfield and Passaic, and 1,500 heard Elizabeth Gurley Flynn and other speakers exhort them to stand firm. There was no disorder. Sheriff Nimmo's threat to arrest anybody who tried to hold a meeting in Bergen county failed to materialize.

Stop Capitol Picketing.

Washington, D. C., April 15.—[Special.]—An attempt on the part of the striking Passaic, N. J., mill workers to establish a picket line of children in front of the White House was frustrated by the local police today. The authorities said they had no objection to adult picketing, but explained that, under the child labor laws, the children would not be allowed to take over the job. The ages of the children ranged from four to eleven years.

KEROSENE PRICE UP 1 CENT.
Effective today the price of kerosene will be advanced 1 cent per gallon by Standard Oil stations. It was announced yesterday. The price of gasoline is unchanged.

COMMONS OUSTS 13 LABORITES FOR BLOCKING LAWS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, April 15.—Thirteen Labor members of parliament were suspended after an all night sitting early this morning as a result of an organized attempt at obstruction of the economy bill by Laborites who object to cuts in pensions, health insurance, and other social activities, which they call robbing the poor. The government is forcing the bill through, compelling all night sittings until it is passed, and the tempers of all parts of the house are short.

About 8 o'clock this morning, thirteen Laborites, having talked with the government, hit on the plan of entering a division in the lobby when the vote was called on one of the clauses, and refused to leave. The presiding deputy speaker, nonplussed, sent for the speaker, who, roused from bed, declared it a deliberate obstruction to business and suspended them for five days.

EX-FISH FAN PAIR GIVEN FINES ONLY FOR BOOZE GUILT

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Richard C. Maser and Charles Eisenmann, former employees of the Fish Fans' club, yesterday escaped with fines when they appeared before Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson for sentences following their conviction by a jury on charges of violating the Volstead act.

In abandoning his usual policy of jail sentences for bootleggers, Judge Wilkerson took occasion to speak caustically of the government's failure to prosecute the owners of forty lockers which were chopped open and found to contain grog.

The judge said the "strong arm of the law seems to have been stricken with paralysis" in so far as the forty slipping Fish Fans are concerned. His refusal to place all blame on Maser and Eisenmann, when, he held, the locker owners were equally guilty, was assigned as his reason for assessing fines only. Maser was fined $500 and Eisenmann $200.

SMALL'S RECORD SORE SPOT FOR SLATE FRAMERS

Smith-Kinney to Dominate
State Convention.

BY FRANK BUTZOW.

With the primaries over, Gov. Zen Small is an annoying problem on the hands of the Illinois G. O. P. The Republican state convention will be held at Springfield next Friday, and the platform builders are puzzled over the customary plank dealing with the record of G. O. P. achievement in the state.

The governor has been repudiated in his attempt to get control of the state treasury. He suffered some humiliating defeats in legislative contests, and his hopes of controlling the Republican state committee have gone glimmering.

Two years ago the Luntin-Smith machine had its own way, uncontested, at the state convention. Anti-Small elements stayed away and let the governor and his crowd run their own show in their own way.

No Prize in Small. Next week the Republican state convention will be a Smith-Kinney celebration. It appears, without much pointing with pride to Gov. Small and his five years at Springfield. Early indications point to a forward looking convention rather than a review of the past years in Illinois. Frank L. Smith whose majority over United States Senator William B. McKinley is upwards of 120,000, is still chairman of the state committee until a new leader is named within the next month. There has been no getting of heads together on the new chairmanship yet, but the new committee, like the old, appears to be a Smith committee. Returns on the committee election are still fragmentary.

Statement From Kinney. Garrett de Forest Kinney of Peoria, former state chairman who defeated Gov. Small's candidate, William J. Stratton for the state treasury nomination and who will share honors with Smith at the Springfield convention issued this statement: "Naturally the result of the vote on state treasurer throughout Illinois is highly gratifying to me. Especially do I appreciate the support of Republicans of Cook county. I consider the vote received by me as a declaration of policy in favor of the movement of essential public business from the fury of factional politics. It also was a kindly reminder that many Republicans with whom I have been associated as a coworker in former campaigns did not forget me. It will be my pleasure to do my utmost to bring about the election of the entire Republican ticket next fall." Kinney's plurality in Cook county

PAGE BOY 5 YEARS AGO BECOMES A MEMBER OF CURB EXCHANGE

New York, April 15.—(AP)—Vincent E. Elwell, who five years ago was a page boy in the New York curb exchange, became a member of the exchange today at the age of 31, the first employed ever to become a full fledged member. The membership of J. L. Penny was transferred to him.

Coincident with announcement of his curb membership, it was stated that he had also been made a partner in the firm of John L. Morgenthau & Co.

Elwell became a page when the curb moved into its new building at Trinity place. He was soon promoted to the reporter's staff and assigned to "the bond crowd."

His $3,513. He was nominated by between 60,000 and 70,000.

Denson Congratulates Smith. Smith arrived in Chicago yesterday to find a flood of congratulations at his Congress hotel headquarters. One from Senator Denson said: "Congratulations and best wishes."

Senator McKinley's telegram: "I congratulate you; guess I am not premature this time," recalled the memorable message in which McKinley congratulated Smith in their contest six years ago when early returns indicated Smith's nomination.

William A. Rodenberg of East St. Louis, a southern Illinois Republican leader and for 20 years in congress, wired to Smith: "Congratulations, McKinley is vindicated. He said six years ago that you were the best Republican in Illinois. He was right."

No Anti-Coolidge Movement. The Smith camp does not interpret Smith's victory as an anti-Coolidge movement in Illinois, the interpretation some observers have put on it. They point out that Smith's campaign centered on opposition to joining the world court, a difference of opinion on that score with the administration, but that in his speeches Smith lauded rather than criticized the President and stalwart Republican policies.

Smallpox Cases Close High School at Paris, Ill. Paris, Ill., April 15.—(Special.)—Local and state authorities are making a desperate fight to combat an epidemic of smallpox which seems to defy every effort to check its advance. The junior high school was ordered closed when two pupils appeared in their classes suffering from the disease. Neglect to observe quarantine rules is said to be responsible for the situation.

DISABLED VETS FORGET CARES AS CIRCUS GUESTS

Disabled war veterans were guests at the Sells-Floto circus yesterday in the Coliseum. More than 1,000 of them attended the performance. The halved, crippled and shell-shocked boys who had "done their stuff" during the war did it again yesterday. They were as enthusiastic at the circus as they were eager and valorous during the big battles.

They had a lot of fun with the monkeys before the performance and they renewed their acquaintance with "Old Sultan" the pride of John Hott's group of black-maned Nubians.

When the war was won the soldiers met "Sultan" and his eighteen fellow "Kings" in Berlin. "Sultan" likes ice cream and they gave him his fill of it yesterday.

A special program of patriotic airs was played by the circus band in honor of the soldiers and the thirty girl performers in the swinging ladder number sang "My Country, 'Tis of Thee."

Dunlap offers the finest in Camel's-Hair Coats

Hat illustrated is the Dunlap "METROPOLITAN" Priced at $8

THIS spring the critical tastes of best dressed men are demanding the luxuriousness of genuine Camel's Wool Polo Cloth Coats.

And the "Dunlap-Worumbo," with its precision of fit, elegance of style and genuineness of quality, is filling that demand to perfection.

From the motor to the opera—the country club to the avenue, for town wear as well as sports, this coat is now the accepted vogue.

Made of the finest Camel's Down the Orient produces, it is naturally the choice of the man who insists on durability as well as style.

Besides the solid and "natural" shades, there are rich and handsome designs in checks, plaids, duotone patterns and other modish effects. The models are in both single and double breasted, as illustrated.

For women, The "Dunlap-Worumbo" comes in a youthful model which lends itself charmingly to this particular fabric.

BADGER BOVINE TEST FUND BILL BECOMES A LAW

Legislature O. K.'s Measure in 12 Hours.

Madison, Wis., April 15.—(AP)—The state legislature came to the aid of Wisconsin farmers tonight by unanimously authorizing an additional appropriation of $400,000 towards paying indemnities on cattle condemned in bovine tuberculosis tests.

The bill immediately was signed by Gov. Blaine, who called the special one-day session to meet the emergency which he declared had arisen through the action of the board of health of Chicago in buying milk from untested herds. Emergency testing of Wisconsin herds in the Chicago milk area brought a depletion of the available funds and indemnity payments were stopped.

Pass Bill in 12 Hours.

Confining its business to considering the appropriation, both the senate and lower house disposed of the matter in a 12 hour session that was continued tonight to complete the business. The bill met no opposition in the house, where it was passed quickly, after emerging from a hearing before the joint committee of finance.

Passage by the senate was delayed through a futile attempt by Senator John C. Schumann of Watertown to increase the proposed appropriation to $750,000. It was rejected, 25 to 7, and the original bill carrying a $400,000 appropriation was passed unanimously.

Milwaukee to Bar Untested Milk.
Milwaukee, Wis., April 15.—(U. P.)—Milk from untested cows will be barred from Milwaukee starting Oct. 1.

The embargo was announced by Health Commissioner John P. Koehler, who declared his department has been conducting a quiet campaign for many months.

Koehler announced that no legislation would be required, saying an ordinance adopted by the common council in 1909 will be brought to life to achieve the goal of having milk in Milwaukee only from cows that have been thoroughly tested for bovine tuberculosis.

WOMEN'S IDEAS OF CITIZENSHIP ARE CRITICIZED

'Misty with Theory,' One
Educator Says.

BY KATE WEBBER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
St. Louis, Mo., April 15.—[Special.]—That conventions of the National League of Women Voters be held biennially instead of annually, as heretofore, was recommended by the general council of the league here today, to be presented to the delegates for indorsement tomorrow.

The things with which present day college women are filling their minds will never make leadership for Main street, according to Dr. Raymond Moley, associate professor of government at Barnard college, who addressed members of the league, most of whom are college women.

Criticism College Tendencies.

Delegates learned also that education in citizenship, one of the league's chief concerns, is still a pebble dropped into the sea. The citizenship schools offered by women are "misty with theory," while commercial current events courses thrive and attract the average citizen where "pure government" leaves him cold.

Mrs. W. W. Ramsay and Mrs. May Wood Simons of Chicago were speakers at the citizenship conference and gave encouraging reports of institutes conducted in Illinois.

The financing of Illinois schools was discussed by Mrs. Lottie Holman O'Neill in an address read by Miss Edith Rockwood. Three principal needs for school finance were given as a gradually increasing distributive fund, a fairer system of taxation and a better district system for local school taxation.

Advice on Legislation.
Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch of Chicago urged those interested in legislation for women to have their bills drawn up free from technicalities. "Psychological analysis also plays an important part in putting measures across," she said. "If women were not bluffed to a standstill they could accomplish a great deal more in furthering their bills. Forget your lofty 'nice-lady' ideals and meet men as men. Use good psychology on your candidate; made him feel, even before the primary, that your bill is his, and then check up on him afterward."

COAL MINE AS LEITER RESERVE, SHOWN AT TRIAL

The Zeigler Coal company had an unflinching source of funds in the $30,000 estate of Levi Z. Leiter, and the Zeigler company was usually unfailing as a reserve for Joseph Leiter, according to documentary evidence interpreted yesterday by Herbert Beck, public accountant, from the witness-stand in Judge Denis E. Sullivan's court.

Beck testified in the suit brought by Lady Margaret Hyde, countess of Suffolk and Berks, to remove her brother, Joseph Leiter, from the trusteeship of their father's estate.

The mutual borrowing privileges were indicated by entries from books and ledgers showing that from Jan. 24, 1921, to March, 1921, the coal company borrowed $90,000 from the estate, and during the same period Leiter borrowed $100,700 from the coal company. On March 8, 1921, the company received $25,000 from the estate; on March 15, $15,000, and March 26, $50,000.

As fast as the coal company drew from the estate funds, Leiter drew on the coal company, the accountant testified. William J. Warr, co-trustee of the estate, is still ill.

Ears Show, but Her Calves Prove She's Not a Man

[Copyright, 1926, by the New York Times.]
REELIN, April 15.—The police, observing a lady's boyish bob with her ears showing, decided to trail what they thought was a dangerous pick-pocket, disguised in feminine attire today. Despite protests, a sly officer took her to the station, where a policeman was called. The feminine cop did not look at the lady's bob, but took a glance at her calves and she was freed.

TELLS COURT HOW HIS BARE HANDS KILLED OSTRICH

Drunk, in Defense, Grabs
Neck and "Holds On."

Boston, Mass., April 15.—(AP)—The victor in a midnight battle with a bad ostrich told his story in court today. William McIntyre, who last week killed Governor, a Franklin park ostrich, with his bare hands, described the struggle when arraigned in Roxbury court on a cruelty charge.

In view of the unusual circumstances of the case Judge Perran reserved judgment. Officials of the zoo told the court that in each a fight the man's chances were one to twenty-five.

McIntyre said that early last Friday morning he was on his way home somewhat intoxicated. He decided to sleep off his liquor and sought the camel house at Franklin zoo as his backchamber. He had just removed his coat when something struck him a terrific blow on the chest, knocking him down. As he struggled to his feet another blow laid him flat.

"I didn't know what it was all about," McIntyre told the court. "I reached out to find who was hitting me and clutched something long, thin and alive. I held on."

The "something" was the neck of a bird that stood eight feet high and weighed 300 pounds, but McIntyre held on. At last, just as his strength was failing, he felt the member to which he had clung so desperately grow limp.

"As soon as that thing quit I went right away from there," McIntyre said. "I never stopped to find out what it was or to get my coat and things. I had enough."

2,700 APPLY TO ATTEND CITIZEN TRAINING CAMPS

Two thousand seven hundred applications to attend citizens' military training camps in the Sixth Corps area this summer have already been received, Maj. Gen. William S. Graves, commanding the area, announced yesterday.

This represents 62 per cent of the total number of men who can attend, and Maj. Gen. Graves believes there will be a heavy over-registration. He urges that all young men desiring to attend send in their applications at once to the headquarters of the Sixth Corps area, 1215 West Pershing road. The camps will run for thirty days. Provision has been made for lectures, motion pictures and amateur and professional entertainment in the spare time of the military students.

SHOT AN AUTO THREE TIMES. Robert Olson, 24 years old, 4228 West Washington boulevard, died yesterday of wounds received when he was shot last Monday by Policemen James McNamara and James Clancy. The policeman took Olson for an automobile thief and shot him when he ran away from a car in front of 124 North Hamilton avenue. The car belonged to George W. Granger, 5806 Westworth avenue, and had not been reported stolen.

Rich

in flavor . . . that's why
Quaker Oats entices
youngsters

THE way to make children like oatmeal is to give them the kind they like.

Thus millions of mothers insist on the Quaker brand. Children who ordinarly don't like oats, take readily to this rich and tasty kind.

Quaker flavor is due to exclusive milling processes which took some 50 years to perfect. Processes, too, which retain much of the "bulk" of oats, which makes laxatives less often needed.

Thus protein, carbohydrates, vita-mines and "bulk" are combined in making Quaker Oats an excellent food balance.

Quick Quaker cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. Thus makes the richest breakfast the quickest.

The price is the same as for ordinary oats. When a substitute is accepted, you alone are the loser.

CANADA SLASHES HIGH TARIFF ON U. S. PRODUCTS

BY GEORGE SMITH.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

(Copyright, 1926, By The Chicago Tribune.)
Ottawa, Ontario, April 15.—Sweeping reductions in Canadian taxation were announced in the Canadian parliament today in the budget presentation of Finance Minister James Robb, outstanding among which is a general reduction in the tariff on automobiles. The reduction announced by the minister is of fifteen per cent on automobiles, motor trucks and motor cars valued at not more than twelve hundred dollars retail in the states; and a reduction from the present thirty-five per cent duty to twenty-seven and a half per cent on motor vehicles valued at more than twelve hundred dollars. Restriction of tariff changes to the one big item of motor cars, and a few minor ones affecting Canada's trade relations with the West Indies, is brought about by the recent creation of a "tariff advisory board." Otherwise it is felt here the government would have gone much further in the direction of tumbling the Canadian tariff wall between Canada and the United States. In one significant sentence Mr. Robb perhaps heralded efforts at bettering trade relations between Canada and the United States. Announcing in in-

How to Get Rid of Muscle-Lameness

Beach Patrolman Advises this Treatment

A beach patrolman at Atlantic City writes that he has found this treatment the quickest and most effective way to take out stiffness and pain:

"Just pat on a little of Sloan's Liniment. Don't rub it. It's the liniment—not the rubbing—that helps. You'll get relief right away. I've tried all sorts of other things, but nothing gets results like Sloan's."

Hundreds of letters like this tell of the wonderful relief from muscular pain that Sloan's gives.

Sloan's gets results because it doesn't just deaden pain, it gets at the cause. Right to the place that hurts it brings a healing stream of fresh, new blood. Quickly and surely it carries off the "fatigue-poisons," takes out stiffness and sends away the acids and pain.

Get a bottle today. All drug-gists. 25 cents. Dr. Earl S. Sloan, 114 W. 18th St., New York.

CARPENTERS ASK 100% UNION ON LOCAL BUILDINGS

Article 2, which formerly was embodied in agreements between the Chicago Carpenters' District Council and mill owners, an article which prohibited importation of nonunion work and doors into the Chicago market, is being threatened to upset the tranquility of the local building industry, according to S. F. D. McFadyen, secretary of the Chicago Millwork association. Members of the association will meet today to discuss plans to oppose the efforts of Harry Jensen, president of the Carpenters' District Council, to re-establish the prohibitive nonunion clause in a contract with the employers to become effective on June 1. The mill owners also will try to stand pat on their refusal to grant a wage boost from $1.15 to $1.25 an hour.

Article 3 Illegal

"Article 3 has been declared illegal by federal courts and its reestablishment would be a violation of the law," Mr. McFadyen asserted last night. "In the event the officials of the Carpenters' District Council decide to call a walkout of mill workers in an effort to force reestablishment of article 3 they will find themselves in a federal court. Jensen has informed us that he intends to call strikes on individual mill owners and only as they agree to his terms allow the men to go back to work."

"We have told him and his associates that if such action is attempted, on the expiration of the present agreement on May 31, the union will find about 5,000 of its members on the street after the first strike order is issued."

Meanwhile, the Chicago contractors and the Chicago chapter of the American Institute of Architects continue to oppose demands of the plasterers' union for a five day work week and an increase in minimum pay from $13 to $14 a day.

Fear Automatic Boosts

Builders point out that in the event the plasterers are given a wage increase the action would automatically increase the rates of trades now getting $1.37 1/2 to $1.50 and those getting $1.50 to $1.75 an hour on June 1. Edward McGivern, international president of the plasterers' organization, will arrive here today to negotiate.

Building permits for the first fourteen days of April were for $15,201,650, against $13,449,480 for the same period last year.

U. S. Inspector Reaches Portugal to Survey Ports

SIX DETECTIVES GUARD BROWNING AND CINDERELLA

(Picture on back page.) New York, April 15.—(Special.)—Six private detectives were guarding Edward W. Browning tonight when he and his 15 year old bride motored from this city to the Gramatan hotel, Bronxville. The protecting cordon was established after the real estate broker received several threatening telephone calls. The nature of the threats could not be ascertained, but Browning, who has been ill at ease since his sudden marriage to Frances Heenan last Saturday, appeared to be nervous and agitated. In connection with the advent of the detectives it was learned that the janitor of Browning's office building found a long knot of crepe hanging from Browning's office doorknob, and grouped about were several old shoes and a bouquet of flowers.

The broker and his bride, however, were freed of their last official worry today when Presiding Judge Franklin Chase Hoyt of the Children's society formally dismissed the action of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, which had sought to displace Mrs. Catherine Heenan, the mother of the girl, as Frances' guardian.

Judge Hoyt found that her marriage to Browning automatically ended the guardianship. None of the principals was in court.

Judge Hoyt emphasized the need for a law such as is now pending in the assembly to prevent the marriage of minors, except in cases where the approval of a justice of the Supreme court or a judge of the Children's court was obtained in addition to the parental consent.

ESTIMATE OPEN BRIDGES WASTE $200,000 YEARLY

Spring, with its revival of water shipping, finds street traffic in and out of the loop district still handicapped by open bridges.

A reminder that the problem is as yet unsolved was voiced yesterday by Edward S. Taylor, manager of the Chicago plan commission. Mr. Taylor spoke before the Women's Roosevelt Republican club.

"Traffic congestion is costing the city $200,000 a year," he declared. "Delays caused by open bridges, often to let small tugs and barges crawl by, engineers estimate, contributes $200,000 to this expense."

Urges End of Open Bridges.
"A municipal ordinance keeps the loop bridges closed from 6:30 to 9 a. m. and 4:30 to 7 p. m., but the hours should be lengthened and more rigidly enforced. The city's policy should be to work toward an elimination of open bridges altogether."

Quoting the bridge survey report by Griffiths and associates, engineers, Mr. Taylor said that the city's bridges open $2,000 times in one year. One-third of these openings could be eliminated by requiring dredges, sand scoops and other small craft to be built low enough on the water for clearance, he asserted.

Excluding street cars and buses, Mr. Taylor said, 320,000 vehicles pass over Chicago bridges on a typical week day. The number of people using the bridges is nearly 2,000,000, most of whom are shoppers and loop workers.

Time Wasted in a Year.
During a year each of these pedestrians wastes twenty-two minutes waiting while boats have the bridge right of way, the speaker estimated. All told, a total of 22,514,200 minutes or 375,240 hours could be saved by entirely doing away with open bridges.

Another plan by which traffic can be facilitated, Mr. Taylor said, is the establishment of the proposed through street system. Approximately $40,000,000 annually could be saved to the city through these improvements, he estimated.

Under the scheme advocated by the plan commission, the system is to include forty-four separate streets, twenty-five of which will be east and west through arteries and fifteen north and south. The other four thoroughfares will cross the city diagonally.

CONTINUE FIGHT ON WATERWAY, BUT SHIFT PLANS

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., April 15.—(Special.)—Michigan and Ohio members of the house opposing completion of the Illinois river waterway are relying upon the possibility that the state department may ask congress not to embarrass pending great lakes water diversion treaty negotiations with Canada by inclusion of the project in the forthcoming omnibus river and harbor improvement bill.

The Michigan and Ohio members, it became known today, have appealed to Secretary of State Kellogg to take such a stand, and at the request of Representative Chalmers (Rep., O.), who has had a number of conferences with state department officials this week, the house steering committee today agreed to wait several days before announcing whether the rivers and harbors bill would be brought up in the diversion treaty negotiations with

Every woman would want to shake hands with these men

THERE HAD NEVER BEEN an infallible method of preventing moth-damage. A group of men experimented for 18 months to find one. And found it! They produced Larvex.

Then they tested it. Hundreds of woolen samples were cut up. Half were mothproofed with Larvex. Half were not. All were covered with moth-worms. (Only moth-worms eat. Moths are harmless. They merely lay eggs which hatch into moth-worms.)

Months passed. The samples which were not mothproofed were eaten—all of them. But there wasn't a single moth-hole in any sample protected with Larvex. These tests proved Larvex to be the greatest protection against moth-damage ever discovered.

Only $1. to keep $200. worth of valuable woollens moth-free!

Your husband's overcoat, your winter coat, suits, all things woolen in your home—Protect them with Larvex. Use Larvex to mothproof—

Last year over 1,000,000 women protected their woolen things with Larvex. It will protect yours, too. Simply spray it thoroughly on anything woolen. It penetrates the wool fibres and becomes part of the cloth—makes the cloth itself mothproof, makes woolen things as distasteful to moth-worms as cotton or paper. One thorough spraying lasts an entire season.

No further protection is necessary. No need to pack things away. Moth-worms or carpet beetles will not eat them. Clothes are safe hanging in your closets—and always available. And when you get them out, no unpleasant odor hangs to them. For Larvex is odorless. Non-inflammable, too!

HOW TO BUY LARVEX

If you have never used Larvex, first buy the combination package containing the improved Larvex Atomizer, $1.50. Then buy the refill sizes of Larvex only; the pint at $1, or if you have many things to mothproof, buy the 1/2 gallon at $3 or the gallon at $5. At drug, department, and furniture stores. Buy Larvex today. The Larvex Corporation, 55 Rodney St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

EXPERTS' JOBS "MACHINE OIL," WITNESS TELLS

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

Glimpses of the workings of the old Thompson-Lundin machine at the height of its power in the city hall were afforded yesterday in the testimony of John F. Ryan, assessment clerk for many years in the board of local improvements, who was on the stand all day in Judge Hugo M. Friend's court in the suit of this Tribune against the real estate experts.

One of the minor plum baskets of that administration, it appeared incidentally in the testimony, was the job of commissioner on each section of the bond improvement streets.

Oil for Ward Machinery.

Supposedly a court appointment, this job was handed out in many instances to ward committeemen for the machine. They were supposed to do the work of appraising the property and the benefits to be derived and the method of the assessment. As a matter of fact, many of these streets commissioners were not real estate experts at all.

The names of George Hitzman, Republican committeeman in the 36th ward, just nominated for clerk of the Probate court; Charles J. (Doc) Peters, state grain inspector and recent Deneen candidate for sheriff; Leslie P. Voiz, former secretary to Fred Lundin; Andrew C. Metzger, committeeman in the 8th ward, nominated for county commissioner, and Arthur A. Huhnke, former committeeman in the 23d ward, appeared in the evidence yesterday as among those present when the commissioner fees were handed out in 1920.

Most Lack Experience.

With the exception of Huhnke, the records of those ward leaders do not show any experience in the real estate game.

In giving the history of each improvement to show that M. J. Faherty and his city engineers and clerks did the greater part of the work on the streets, the commissioners for each section were named. They appear as follows:

—Gustav E. Beery and David H. Grant, $4,000 each.

ASHLAND AVENUE [fourth section]—John Schmidt and James A. Luby, $3,000 each.

ASHLAND AVENUE [fifth section]—Sella C. Graham and John B. MoComb, $5,000 each.

ASHLAND AVENUE [ninth section]—Charles J. Peters and George Hitzman, $10,000 each.

ASHLAND AVENUE [tenth section]—Alex Wagner and Seth Joseph Johnson, $4,000 each.

ROBEY STREET [first section]—Arthur A. Huhnke and Charles Slader, $3,000 each.

ROBEY STREET [second section]—Charles J. Everts and Louis F. Wilk, $5,000 each.

ASHLAND AVENUE [third section]—Gregory P. Van Meter, former public administrator, connected in business with George F. Harding; Titus Haffa, Republican nominee for assessor and leader in the 43rd ward, $2,500 each.

WESTERN AVENUE [fourth section]—Thos. N. Devenish and Thomas Quinlan, $300 each.

ASHLAND AVENUE [first section]—Leslie P. (Ike) Voiz and Arthur A. Huhnke, $2,500 each.

COUNTY HOSPITAL CONTRACTS LET; CHAPEL OMITTED

Contracts for construction work on the new $2,500,000 additions to the county hospitals were let yesterday by Anton J. Cermak, president of the county board. Calkson work has already been started on the project.

The general contract went to the Great Lakes Construction company, which bid $1,917,800. The Kinsie Engineering company will do the steam fitting for $161,570. Electrical work will be furnished by the U. S. Electric company for $75,600. The caisson work is being done by the Newman company at a cost of $112,882. Plumbing contracts were not let because the county board considered the bids excessive. New bids will be advertised for.

Protests of the Undertakers' association against the construction of a chapel in the hospital resulted in the passage of a resolution omitting a chapel from the plans.

Mate, He Says in Suit

Alice Worthington Ottosen, daughter of John W. Worthington, who died recently in a federal prison, beat her husband three times during their short married life, according to the testimony of Carlton D. Ottosen, 6023 Woodlawn avenue, yesterday before Superior Judge Joseph Sabath. The judge indicated he would grant Ottosen a decree of divorce after the husband described the beatings, one of which took place, he said, in the Gingham cafe on the south side.

MEXICO ANSWERS CHURCH PROTEST BY ULTIMATUM

Tells Catholic Schools to Obey Law or Close.

BY JOHN CORNYN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
[Copyright: 1926: By The Chicago Tribune.]
Mexico City, April 15.—Minister of Education Puig answered the protest of the principals of the Catholic schools against lay instruction. He told the Catholics they were facing a fundamental law of the republic and that nothing was left but to accept the law or move out and make room for the schools complying with the law, which the minister said, would be provided immediately.

Apparently the Catholics had anticipated the attitude of the government. It is said they will close all the church schools of primary grades, leaving the field to the government.

Holds Church to Law.

Minister Puig said the government had no intention of driving the private primary schools out of existence and would do everything possible to make the road easy for them within the provisions of the law. However, he added, they must understand that the government has no course open except to follow the law and no inclination to follow any other.

He said he personally believed lay instruction the best for Mexico, but if the Catholics thought different and believed themselves strong enough to convince the people of Mexico they could take a legal course to persuade congress to reform the law on lay education.

"Will of the People."

With the demand of the divine law and rights of family of which the Catholic principals spoke the minister said he had nothing to do, as the will of the people had put the law on the statute book and asked him to put it into force. They could depend upon it, it was said, that the schools will be closed on the expiration date, fixed at April 22, unless they comply with the requirements of the law on lay education.

Yesterday the legislature at Puebla, "the most Catholic state in Mexico," passed by a large majority a law restricting the number of priests in a city to one for every 4,000 inhabitants, which means about twenty priests in a city now possessing several hundred.

The legislature building was packed with an anxious audience of Catholics and liberals awaiting the results of the voting.

Husband Opposes Alimony for Wife Who Has Suitor

Alimony ought not to be paid a wife after she is discovered with another man in her room, Ted Hill, official of the Camden Petroleum and Oil company, argued yesterday before Superior Judge Walter P. Steffen. Hill has been paying Mrs. Estelle Scott Hill temporary alimony pending the hearing of their divorce suit. But a week ago, he declared, he and four others discovered Robert J. Kent, bird and dog fancier, in Mrs. Hill's apartment, 2055 Sedgwick street, at midnight. Judge Sabath took under advisement Hill's plea for modification of the alimony order.

AIR MAIL CUTS ST. LOUIS TIME IN FIRST FLIGHT

Daily air mail service between Chicago and St. Louis was established yesterday.

This will mean, in effect, an overnight mail service between New York and St. Louis, via Chicago.

The first swift little plane to make the daily hop left Checkerboard field, Chicago, at 5:50 o'clock yesterday morning piloted by Charles A. Lindbergh. Alighting briefly in Peoria and Springfield for pickups, Lindbergh arrived at St. Louis at 9:07 o'clock, eight minutes ahead of schedule time. At 10 o'clock the mail was ready for distribution at the St. Louis postoffice.

At 4:20 o'clock a return plane hopped off from St. Louis, without mishap at 6:54 o'clock, twenty-one minutes ahead of schedule.

A private firm, the Robertson Bros. company of St. Louis, has the contract with the government for carrying the mail.

A good portion of the air pilot's damage from Springfield was made up of a part of the 10,000 souvenirs from the home of Lincoln to be distributed over practically the entire nation by air mail.

DESERT SAND AND NOMADS IMPERIL HUNT FOR FLYERS

CAIRO, April 15.—[U. P.]—In the midst of desert sandstorms, braving murderous desert tribesmen, searchers in armored cars and airplanes are renewing attempts to find Capt. Rafael Estevez, leader of the Madrid to Manila flight, who was forced to land last Sunday 120 miles east of Ajlun, ancient Biblical capital of Palestine.

Due to the isolated district in which Capt. Estevez and his companion flyer were forced to land, the chance of their rescue alive is slight. The two were on the Baghdad to Cairo hop when forced down. Their plane was found five miles off the Sual air route, in a land of little water and of dangerous desert tribes. They carried food for only one day. The small chance that they were picked up by some friendly natives, however, has caused the order that increased efforts be made to find them.

Polish Airship at Leningrad.
HELSINKI, Finland, April 15.—(U. P.)—The dirigible Norge, which left Oslo, Norway, early this morning, landed at Troitsk, a suburb of Leningrad, at 7:30 p. m., eastern European time.

Brazil Trust Buys Coffee
to Prevent Price Collapse

RIO DE JANEIRO, April 15.—(U. P.)—Trading in coffee in Brazil's principal shipping ports is slumping badly. The Sao Paulo coffee defense institute, it is said, now is buying in the Santos market in an effort to check the tumbling coffee prices.

Arms Conference Delegates Leave for Geneva April 30
Washington, D. C., April 15.—[Special.]—Announcement was made at the state department today that the American delegation to the league of nations preliminary arms conference would leave for Geneva on April 30. The delegation headed by Hugh Gibson, American minister to Switzerland, has had its instructions for several days. No word has been received here relative to rumors that the conference would be postponed again.

MOST life insurance is bought to protect the dependents of the insured. Yet when the insurance is payable in a lump sum to beneficiaries untrained in money management it may easily fail to provide such protection.

The better way is to arrange a simple Life Insurance Trust, making the insurance proceeds payable to this bank as trustee. The money will be invested and the income and principal distributed over a period of years as you direct.

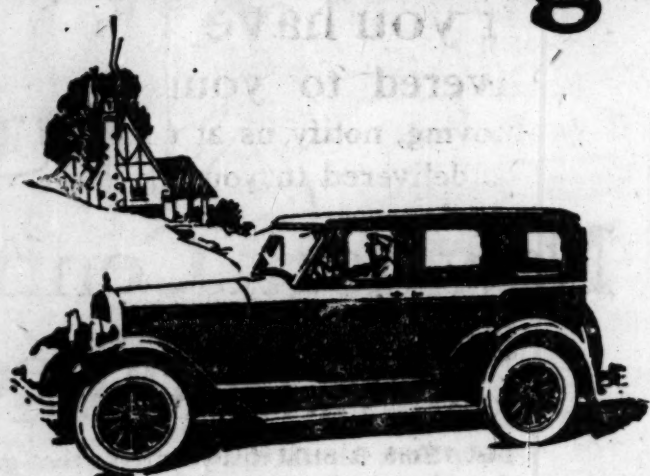

Ask for a copy of our booklet, "Insurance and Insurance Trusts", or talk with any officer of our trust department about it.

If You Are Tired of the Sameness in Car Design

come in and let us show you the present Velie. It will be a refreshing experience, both because of the distinctive design and construction of the beautiful low bodies, and the amazing new qualities of performance.

Flashing pick-up. Power and speed beyond what any emergency will demand. Flexibility that you sense the moment you sit at the wheel. A smoothness and freedom from vibration astonishing to the most critical motor expert.

Such are the advantages now found in the Velie—plus an individuality available otherwise only in the highest-priced cars of custom design.

Give us an opportunity to demonstrate the new Velie to you, and learn just why it is called AMERICA'S LONG LIFE CAR.

$150,000,000 GOOD ROADS BILL IS UP IN HOUSE

Provides Federal Aid in 1928 and 1929.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
Washington, D. C., April 15.—[Special.]—An appropriation of $150,000,000 for the construction of federal aid good roads throughout the country during 1928 and 1929 is proposed in a bill introduced today in the house. The bill came to the floor with the unanimous approval of the roads committee, which reported to the house that no similar measure had ever received such a general support from interested national organizations.

In its hearings, the committee reported, accredited spokesmen appeared on behalf of nine important groups—the American Association of State Highway Officials, the American Automobile association, the American Bankers' association, the American Farm Bureau federation, the American Federation of Labor, the National Grange, the American Road Builders' association, the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, and the Chamber of Commerce of the United States—all urging continuance of the federal aid road building policy and passage of the pending bill.

"This is a federal aid project," declared Representative Ramseyer (Rep., Ill.), who moved for immediate consideration. "And while I have never been in favor of an extension of the federal aid system, this I am satisfied, is justified. Since its very foundation the government has given aid from the federal treasury to the improvement of rivers, harbors, roads, and railroads."

"The bill comes to the floor with the unanimous recommendation of the roads committee as well as the roads committee," declared Representative Bankhead (Dem., Ala.), ranking Democrat on the roads committee. "The recommendation of this measure by the great organizations who sent their representatives before us represents the crystallization of sentiment all over the country in favor of the continuance of this federal policy."

"Those organizations represent all elements of public opinion, and I doubt if as generally unanimous approval could be secured for any other measure that might be proposed."

"This federal aid is popular," Mr. Bankhead asserted, "because it is an appropriation that brings the benefit of government directly to the front door of the taxpayer, even in isolated sections."

DENIES SHE GOT STOCKINGS CLERK TOOK FROM WIFE

Much amused at the statement of Mrs. Ada Middleton, naming her as the recipient of silk stockings which Albert Middleton, 3006 West 47th street, was accused of stealing from his wife, Mrs. Bulowa, part owner of the grocery store at 1322 East 47th street, where Albert clerked, denied yesterday that she even wore silk hose, let alone received them from an employee.

According to Mrs. Bulowa, she appeared in Judge John J. Lupe's courtroom to sign a bond for Albert, and she insists that only business transactions occur between her and the clerk.

Phone Girl's Promotion Leads to Suit by Wife

From switchboard girl to private secretary was the rapid rise of Mrs. Marie Williams in the employ of the Central Bank Note company, of which Frederick R. Esty is president, according to a separate maintenance suit filed by Esty's wife, Mrs. Rae Esty, yesterday. Mrs. Esty viewed the business success of Mrs. Williams with suspicion and investigated, finding that her husband was taking his secretary on cabaret tours, according to the bill. The wife asked $600 a month for the support of herself and her children.

CALL STRIKE TO TIE UP ALL OF CUBA'S RAILWAYS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
HAVANA, April 15.—Complete paralyzation of railroad traffic throughout Cuba will take place tomorrow night at 6 o'clock. This was the ultimatum delivered to the president's secretary this morning by Juan Arevalo, representing the Railroad brotherhood of Cuba.

Declaring that a walkout would occur on the Havana Central, United Railways, the Hershey railroad, and Cuba Northern, Señor Arevalo said that if the brotherhood's claims were not made the Havana Electric would later strike. President Machado immediately called a cabinet meeting and it is reported drastic steps will be taken to prevent the cessation of the island's transportation. Troops are to convey mail trains.

The strike is in support of the striking workmen of the Cuba Railroad company, who walked out yesterday because officials refused to comply with the terms of the agreement reached more than a year ago.

Saitor, 50, Ended Life for Love, Inquest Verdict

A coroner's jury yesterday decided that William Rubin, 628 North Locust street, 50 years old, an electrician employed by the Moody Bible institute, committed suicide while temporarily insane over a love affair. Miss Dorothy Wilson, 27 years old, in whose apartment at 819 East 39th street he shot himself, testified that he tried to kill her before firing a bullet into his own head.

STOCKS IN RALLY AFTER 40 ISSUES TOUCH NEW LOWS

YESTERDAY'S AVERAGES

	High	Low	Last	Chg.
30 railroads	85.19	84.45	84.90	-.20
30 industrials	122.11	120.00	121.00	-.44
30 stocks	113.60	112.00	112.50	-.10

New York, April 15.—(AP)—The stock market today displayed a complete reversal of form, selling off sharply during the morning and early afternoon when selling pressure was renewed against the motors, chemicals, steel, and speculative industrial specialties, and then rallying briskly to wards the close on an unusually heavy volume of short covering.

Final quotations were irregularly higher, a long list of net gains ranging from fractions to 15 points, being offset by a smaller number of declines ranging from fractions to 5 1/2 points. Except for a small amount of investment buying on the scale down, trading was almost entirely speculative in character. Total sales were 1,410,700 shares.

French francs at New York.

Outside the stock market, chief financial interest centered in the weakness of the French franc, which dropped 5 points to a new low level for all time at 217 cents in the New York market, following a sharp decline in foreign financial centers.

Recent selling of stocks by professional traders, and the absence of public demand, is generally attributed to recurrent reports of a slowing up in several lines of industry and in retail business. Money rates were no longer an influence, as call money held steady at 4 per cent all day, despite state income tax and April 15 dividend and interest payments, and the usual week-end readjustments of bank reserves.

Forty issues in slump.

Forty issues crashed to new low levels for the year during the day's trading. The list included United States Steel common, Hudson Motors, General Electric, Studebaker, and Tidewater Oil. Several of these issues showed net gains on the day, however. General Electric rallying from 28 to 29 1/2, and then easing to 29 1/2, up 1/2. United States Steel common sold down to 117 and then crossed 118 for a small fractional gain. Hudson closed a point high at 8 1/2 after fluctuating between 8 1/2 and 8 3/4.

Sharp recoveries also took place in American Agricultural Chemical preferred, American Brown Boveri, American Locomotive, Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit, Coca Cola, Columbia Gas, Dupont, Interborough Rapid Transit, National Dairy Products, Railway Steel Spring, Third Avenue Railway, and United States Distributing, all up 2 points or so.

Some weak industrials.

Some of the outstanding industrial weak spots were Atlantic Gulf and West Indies, International Paper, Kellogg, Wheel, Loane-Wilco, Murray Body, National Lead, Pierce-Arrow preferred, Union Tank Car, and United Drug.

Italy was rather sluggish gains of a point or so in Atchafalaya and Rock Island being counteracted by heaviness of New York Central Norfolk and Western, Lackawanna and Nickel Plate common. Jersey Central jumped 15 points to 240 on two sales.

IN FOREIGN STOCK MARKETS.

LONDON, April 15.—(AP)—Bar after, 29 1/2 per cent. Money, 4 1/2 per cent. Discount, 10 per cent. Three months' bills, 4 1/2 per cent.

PARIS.—(AP)—Prices were weak on the bourse today. Three per cent rent, 4 1/2, 100. Exchange on London, 143 1/2. Five per cent loan, 27 1/2. The dollar was quoted at 207 1/2.

WALL STREET NOTES

NEW YORK, April 15.—(AP)—A break of 49 points in Ford Motors of Canada to 200 on odd lot transactions of less than 500 shares featured today's irregular curb market. One sale of Royal Baking Powder took place at 150, a drop of 38 points below the previous transaction a few weeks ago. Victor Talking Machine dropped 3 1/2 points to a new low record for the year at 60 1/2. Alden Coal, General Ice Cream, and Lubrizil also recorded sharp recessions. Chief speculative activity again centered in the baking shares, which were heavy earlier in the session and then rallied on heavy work and short covering. Continental Baking closed a point higher at 14. General Baking A closed 1 1/2 points higher at 8 1/2, and the B stock showed a small fractional gain. Selling of French obligations, inspired by the fall in the franc and the continued weakness of sugar company issues featured bond trading. Prices elsewhere maintained a firm tone, with the demand for investment declines in the French government obligations were limited to fractions, but some of the French rail issues lost a point or more.

Liquidation of sugar company issues embraced Cuban Dominican Camaguey, Eastern Cuba, Cuban Cane, South Porto Rico, Manzanillo, Santa Rita de la Orlana, and Warner issues.

Public offering will be made tomorrow of $17,830,000 Pennsylvania railroad equipment under 4 1/2 per cent certificates at a price of 98 1/2. The bonds will mature in equal installments in from three to fifteen years. The $15,000,000 issue of 15 year 6 per cent debentures for Low's Inc., theater chain owners, also will be offered tomorrow at a price of 98 1/2.

What the above statement does not reveal, however, is that during 1925 we sold almost $5,000,000 of mortgage investments of our own making or origination.

Here, absolute safety is not an empty slogan. Conservative investors, many of them after, prefer to do ALL their business here because sound business principles constitute the basis of all our banking undertakings.

Paint Shop Society's Latest Venture in the World of Business

Society women have put their fingers in nearly every kind of business pie and have tried to run nearly every kind of a shop. The latest departure is a paint shop. The Paint Shop Society, a group of women who have been successful in their own interior decorating business, is planning to open the "Paint and Chintz Shop" on May 3. They're taking a shop on the near north side, a place where they are going to help the home decorator, even going as far as to mix paints for the timid painter.

The Vocational Society for Shut-ins announces another sale at the residence of Mrs. Benjamin Carpenter on April 20, because the Easter sale at Mrs. Walker Borden's was spoiled by bad weather. Assisting will be Mrs. Laird Bell, Mrs. Edward Harris, Mrs. Francis R. Dickinson, Mrs. Harding Scholle, Mrs. Arthur Cable, Mrs. George A. Ranney, and Mrs. Thomas Marshall.

A bulletin from White Sulphur Springs, that mecca of society folk just now, announces the departure of the Russell Forgan and the Charles G. Cummings Jr., who had a cottage together during their stay. They have gone to New York. The Joseph M. Cuddeys are to go to New York today before coming to Chicago. Genevieve Carpenter will soon go to the Carpenters' summer place in Charlotte, Vt. Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Douglas and Mrs. Francis Heider are among the late arrivals.

Mrs. Daniel Peterkin of 199 Lake and Chintz Shop" on May 3. They're City to visit and shop for ten days or a fortnight.

Mrs. Edward L. Ryerson Jr. of 1431 Lake street has returned from Chandler, Ariz., where she went with her young son, Edward III, for the benefit of the boy's health.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Burton of the Drake, have returned from a sojourn at Charleston, S. C.

Mrs. John J. Mitchell Jr. of 233 East Walton place, is expected to return from Santa Barbara next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Hoyle, who have spent the winter at their residence in Camden, S. C., have returned to Highland Park.

The William J. Louderbacks, who have been occupying the A. L. Drum residence at 32 Bellevue place, are back in their own home in Highland Park. Mr. and Mrs. George M. Bark of Highland Park have returned from Florida, where they spent the winter. They stopped in Charleston, S. C., and in Washington, D. C., on their way north.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., April 15.—(Special.)—Mrs. Coolidge received a large group of women today at noon in the White House, in spite of the illness of the President, as the engagement was one of long standing. They were the officers and members of the Dames of Loyal Legion, who are holding their annual meeting here this week.

The Vice President and Mrs. Dawes occupied a box tonight at the last performance this season of the Washington Opera company, under the direction of Edouard Aulion.

Col. John H. Wigmore, dean of the law faculty of Northwestern university at Evanston, has joined Mrs. Wigmore here at the Mayflower.

They have many friends here, as Col. Wigmore was a member of the staff of the judge advocate general of the army during the world war, stationed in Washington.

Mrs. E. L. Thompson of Chicago, who is in Washington for the week, has a company at dinner tonight at the White House.

ENGAGEMENT

Miss Sabra Hart, daughter of Mrs. George A. Hart of the Surf hotel, is to be married on May 12 to William Mack Baxter. Mr. Baxter's former wife was Virginia Lister, who was married to Andrew R. Sherrill last year after her divorce. Miss Hart attended girls' school in Winnetka, and was graduated from Livingston Park seminary last June.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Berenice Gertrude Parber, daughter of Mrs. Abram S. Parber of the Chicago Beach hotel, to Henry Dembubsky. The marriage will take place in June.

Plan Benefit Ball.

The Oak Park Junior League infant welfare will meet at 9:30 o'clock this morning at the residence of Mrs. George D. Wilkinson, general chairman for the charity ball to be given by the organization. The committee includes Mrs. Harry L. Judd, Mrs. Henry G. Hafner, Mrs. Henry M. Armstrong, Mrs. Don B. Kilbourne, Mrs. Park Peter, Mrs. Thomas H. Henneage, Mrs. Telfer MacArthur, and Miss Lorraine Hayes.

Observe 50th Anniversary.

NEW YORK SOCIETY

New York, April 15.—(Special.)—The Morgan Belmonts have leased Mrs. Alexander Powell's place near Old Westbury, and at Locust Valley the A. Graham Miles place will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Davidson, who recently returned from abroad. Thomas W. Lamont Jr. will pass the spring season on the North Shore, having leased the Warren Mumford property between Glen Cove and Locust Valley.

An engagement of interest announced today is that of Helen Batesman Gould, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Gould, to Harry Rice Kimbark of Evanston, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Edison of Llewellyn Park, West Orange, who are at their winter home at Fort Myers, Fla., are expected home next Thursday.

Mrs. James B. Forgan Jr. has arrived from Chicago and will be at 14 East 60th street for some time.

Bright Sayings of the Children

The Tribune will pay $5 for each child's saying printed. The story told never have been printed in any magazine or paper. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unsolicited contributions. Write on one side of the paper. Address bright sayings to Aunt Bee, The Tribune, Chicago.

A friendly neighbor called on mother one day. Roy happened to be standing beside his new sister's crib, sizing up the baby.

"What would you do without little sister?" asked the lady.

"I'm not so much worried about what I'd do without her as what I'll do with her," gloomily replied Roy.

My niece, Dorothy, was in the habit of saying "hello" to every one she knew.

One day she was playing in the front yard, and the boy who lived next door came home from work. Dorothy spied him, and not knowing his name, called out, "Hello, Boy Next Door."

She received an answer.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Knowing String Beans.

This is the season when we long to peruse the seed catalogues, even though our gardening must be in a green box on an elevated balcony, with only two nice hot brick walls to encourage, or more often to discourage, anything from growing.

For three years now we have treasured a letter from a gardener who told us what was about string beans, even to the cooking of them, in which latter matter we believe he was all wrong. He did not want me to tell my readers "to remove strings," because it was better to tell them not to buy beans that had strings, but only the stringless ones. He even said that the market gardeners imposed upon us when they sold us beans that required stringing. And here is more of what he said:

"I see no excuse for it on green beans. With wax beans it is different. They claim that buyers demand a long flat pod. I doubt this. I think the true reason is that the wax beans with long flat pods yield a little better. The round potted wax beans are of better quality and are absolutely stringless. They do not look quite so well in baskets, but they are good to eat."

This gardener says he cooks his beans in a natural way, and that he does not care whether they are green, yellow, brown, or pink, just so they are tender and good. You see any one who raises his own beans and has them cooked soon after they are picked does not have to worry about how they will look. We who do not get our product so fresh have to take all the more pains to make them seem fresh and under such circumstances the cooking of green beans to perfection

Keeping Your Schoolgirl Complexion

By IRENE CASTLE

Copyrighted 1924 by F. O. Beauty Features

Take Care What Kind of Soap touches your face

The kind beauty experts use themselves—how to use

To endanger a good complexion with an unproved soap is a folly. The only kind of soap to use on your face is a true complexion soap. Some soaps that are excellent for many ways are too harsh for the skin.

Launder, scrub, with any soap you wish. But if gauding a good complexion is your aim, take care. Use a soap made to protect it.

Thus Palmolive is so widely urged... a soap made solely for one purpose: to protect the complexion. A soap made by experts in beauty to be used freely and lavishly on the skin.

The accepted beauty method today is the simple rule that follows—Nature's formula to "Keep That Schoolgirl Complexion." Leading skin experts urge. Thousands of beautiful complexions prove its results.

Follow this rule one week—Note the improvement that comes

Wash your face gently with Palmolive Soap, massaging it softly into the skin. Rinse thoroughly, first with warm water, then with cold. If your skin is inclined to be dry, apply a touch of good cold cream—that is all.

Do this regularly, and particularly in the evening. Use powder and rouge, if you wish. But never leave them on over night. They clog the pores, often enlarge them. Blackheads and disfigurements often follow. They must be washed away.

Get real Palmolive

Do not use ordinary soaps in the treatment given above. Do not think any green soap, or represented as of palm and olive oils, is the same as Palmolive.

It costs but 10c the cake!—so little that millions let it do for their bodies what it does for their faces. Obtain Palmolive today. Then note what an amazing difference one week makes. The Palmolive Company (Del. Corp.), Chicago, Illinois. (Latter-day)

Molyneux "Puts Out" Some New Leafy Petals

by Corinne Low

NEW YORK.—(Special Correspondence.)—"How can I leaf thee?" This is the song the Paris couturiers are singing to their clients. For that petal or leaf treatment of the skirt is still just as important as ever.

Today we show how Molyneux has answered the question. He answers, however, only for the slim figure and I may add, the tall figure. For it takes something of a lead pencil outline to carry off gracefully as many leaves as he has put out in this spring dinner and dance frock.

Pale blue georgette fashions the frock. The entire skirt is constructed of leafy ruffles in self-material. The back of the long, straight waist is plain, but across the front are applied two bands of self-material embroidered in pearls and bright silver sequins. The same embroidery further enhances all the little ruffles. This frock is consistent with the present tendency toward a waist line in front slightly raised above the hips.

The best summer wrap to wear with this charming dress is a simple chiffon cape. One of the exclusive shows just off the avenue is showing such a cape cut full enough to fall in graceful points and finished with a fitting shoulder line and two large flowers at the neck. It has no collar and no falling ribbons or other trimming. To accompany evening frocks of plainer line, the model we show today, the same show shows a number of fringed wraps painted or embroidered in gay colors and often finished with a high ruffled collar.

Unless One's Ears Are Lovely, Best Keep 'Em Covered

Miss X complains of her outstanding ears. She would like to be able to wear her hair brushed back lightly, but she is afraid her ears are not pretty enough. Otherwise the style would be becoming. She asks if anything can be done for ears that stand out from the head after one has attained "more than her majority."

The worst thing that can be said about these sleeked back coiffures—though you may not agree it is the worst—is the discouragement they cause in front of mirrors. Ears that were never considered for much else than to hear the dinner bell suddenly become stumbling blocks in the adoption of a smart vogue. It is the wise ear, though, that doesn't come into the open unless ordered by nature for a public showing. An awfully unattractive young woman sat in front of me the other night at the theater with two huge ears fully exposed. I wondered why she felt impelled to produce them at such a disadvantage to her beauty. Otherwise she might have got by quite well. But then, Fashion and Fashion to some folks and what it says goes, regardless.

Once you have attained full growth you have to accept your ears as you accept fate. You can improve on them by certain compromises, like covering up though. If you are willing to undergo an operation to have them drawn back closer to the head, I understand it is quite successful when done by a competent surgeon. There might be the chance, however, that by the time you recover from the operation the styles have changed and they'll be wearing ringlets pinned to the rules we formerly follow.

And speaking of ears that are allowed out, these days—they add another note of expense to the general topic of the cosmetic table. The shiny ear should be powdered lightly and the lobe be gently treated to a dash of color.

Since protruding ears are really a handicap to beauty, mothers should protect their infants in this regard. In the early stages while the tissue is still soft and pliable a night cap or bandage should be worn by the baby.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

BESS: IT WOULD BE BETTER TO

submerge warm water for hot water in washing the face, unless you follow it with a cold rinse or an ice rub. The hot water opens the pores. For the treatment of enlarged pores, send stamped, addressed envelope for my booklet, "Care of the Complexion."

Cobbler is a good variety for planting early in warm water for hot water in heavy soil. Rural New Yorkers are good late potatoes for this section.

It will take 16 bushels of seed potatoes to plant an acre. Treat the seed for such black leg, and black scurf by soaking them for an hour and a half in 20 gallons of water to which has been added four ounces of corrosive sublimate. Spraying seed potatoes pays. Cut the seed tubers into two ounce pieces and plant in rows three feet apart, dropping the fresh cut tubers twenty-two inches apart in the row. Showy cultivation is best.

Lancaster recommends that six applications of a 4-6-50 Bordeaux mixture be applied with a power spray delivering 200 pounds of pressure. To be classed as a successful potato grower you must produce at least 200 bushels to the acre.

RUSSIA WANTS GERMANY TO BE BALTIC UMPIRE

Negotiates to Align Interests with Locarno.

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
BERLIN, April 15.—The supplementary agreement to the Rapallo treaty, which is being prepared by Russia and Germany, is aimed to alleviate Russia's fears of complications which possibly may arise from Germany's entry into the league of nations. The details of these negotiations have been known to all the Locarno powers for seven months. When the negotiations last year for a security pact guaranteeing the Franco-German border indicated that Germany would be forced to enter the league, Russia filed a violent protest with Germany. The soviets feared that once a member of the league, Germany automatically would be compelled to take part in military actions against Russia, which the latter feared. The details of these negotiations have been known to all the Locarno powers for seven months.

Depends on New Ruling.

Germany believes this is made impossible by the new interpretation of Article 16 of the league covenant at Locarno, where the allies agreed to consider "Germany's geographical position and state of disarmament," whenever the question of military action by the league should arise. Germany is confident that it will be able to refuse absolutely to take part in any expedition. It is believed that this interpretation of the compromise would not be accepted by the allies.

If the negotiations carried on to elucidate this point prove unsatisfactory to Germany it will consider seriously the withdrawal of its application for entry into the league and possibly a closer alliance with Russia.

Guarantee of Baltic.

Calling the great disappointment felt in Berlin over the recent failure at Geneva and its fears of a similar conflict at the September session of the league, M. Tschirer made new definite overtures to Germany. Indirectly, through a Baltic state he offered it the important role of guarantor of an "eastern Locarno" security pact, which would guarantee the borders of Russia and the Baltic states. Germany believes these plans are not ripe yet.

The Luther-Stresemann government still clings to the plan of the Locarno agreement, coupled with a treaty of absolute neutrality with Russia, which admittedly is under discussion now.

FALLS DEAD IN GARAGE.

George P. Brown, 38, 109 North Karlov avenue, a jewelry buyer for a long time, dropped dead yesterday in the back of his car, 301 East Erie street. He had called for his automobile and was filling the radiator with water when he fell, supposedly from heart disease.

TODAY THEIR 75TH ANNIVERSARY; BOTH ARE SERIOUSLY ILL

Neola, La., April 15.—(AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Spencer of Neola will celebrate their seventy-fifth wedding anniversary tomorrow and Mrs. Spencer will observe her ninety-first birthday, but there is doubt in the minds of relatives whether either will live to see the day through. Both are critically ill at the home they have occupied for seventy-three years. They came from England in 1851.

Sixty-Eighth, but Forgot It.
Omaha, Neb., April 15.—(AP)—Today is the sixty-eighth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Counsman, residents here for sixty-five years. However, both had forgotten it until deliveries of flowers from friends set them thinking.

"It isn't often that a man can be married sixty-eight years and have to admit to his wife that he has forgotten the date," Mr. Counsman chuckled. "But Arabella had forgotten it, too."

Bank Teller Admits $11,000 Fraud; Accomplish Sought

Elmer Berglund, 2614 North Crawford avenue, first paying teller at the Boulevard Bridge bank, confessed to Assistant State's Attorney Joseph Nicolai yesterday that he had defrauded his employers out of $11,000 through a false check. He implicated William P. Brahm, 3859 North Spaulding avenue, and detectives made an unsuccessful effort to find Brahm. Berglund told the prosecutor that he and Brahm took the money to purchase an Evanson garage. Brahm, he said, gave him the worthless check, which he cashed.

FRANC LOWEST IN HISTORY; NOW 29.61 TO DOLLAR

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, April 15.—The national voluntary subscriptions to save the franc are acting as a boomers, making many people throughout France whose daily activities brought them in contact with the exchange problem wonder how serious the financial situation is if a public appeal is necessary. The franc today sagged to 29.61 to a dollar at the official closing, despite the Bank of France's weekly statement showing that the circulation had decreased 400,000,000 francs and the state account has been reimbursed for advances totaling 600,000,000 francs. This marks the lowest level for the franc in history, and the American and English banks are crowded with tourists eagerly exchanging dollars and pounds for francs.

Peret to Come to U. S.
PARIS, April 15.—(AP)—M. Peret, the French minister of finance, according to reliable information, has decided to cross the Atlantic and finish up the war debt settlement with the United States after the negotiations at London. The finance minister is convinced that nothing effective can be done toward stabilizing the franc until the debts are out of the way.

DEAN OF MEN AT PURDUE RESIGNS; FISHER NAMED

Lafayette, Ind., April 15.—(Special)

—Dean Stanley Coulter, dean of men at Purdue university since 1919, has resigned, and Prof. M. L. Fisher of the school of agriculture has been chosen by the board of trustees to succeed him. The change will become effective July 1. Dean Coulter has been a member of the faculty at Purdue thirty-nine years. Since 1895 he has been head of the department of biology, and in 1907 he became dean of the school of science. He is widely known among the alumni of the university, is author of many papers and books on scientific articles, is chairman of the Indiana conservation commission, and is past president of the Indiana Academy of Science.

Prof. Fisher was graduated from Purdue in 1903 and received his M. S. degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1911. For ten years he has been head of the department of agronomy. He has also been assistant to the dean of the school of agriculture five years.

PLAN THEATER AT RIDGE AND HOWARD STREET

BY AL CHASE.

Work has started on a $200,000 three-story structure at the southeast corner of Howard street and the Ridge, to be known as the Howard-Ridge building. The owners, John Mangel and John C. Gorman, state that they intend erecting a theater on the south half of the lot in the near future. Plans of the Howard-Ridge building by Architect John Nyden call for eleven stories and sixteen four and five room apartments, as well as seven garages. The lot is 100x150. Completion is set for Sept. 1.

George W. Frassas has sold to Louis Schaffer the vacant property, 124x25 feet, at the northeast corner of Lawrence and Harding avenues for a reported $90,000, or at the rate of $750 a foot. This is said to be the highest price paid for property in this vicinity. Mr. Frassas bought the land from Jacob Albert two years ago for $34,100.

The increase in property in this vicinity is due to the new Ritz theater, which is under construction at the southwest corner of Lawrence and Harding. Attorney Albert L. Blumenthal represented the buyer in the deal. Mr. Schaffer contemplates the early erection of a building to contain ten stores and thirty apartments at a cost of about $200,000.

The American Specification Institute will hold a conference this evening at 8:30 at the Architects' club, 1801 Prairie avenue, on the question of sound-proofing of walls and ceilings.

Emma R. Lewis has sold the eight apartments and ten room residence on the 100x150 at 5221 Blackstone avenue to Albert V. McLeod for a reported $75,000, subject to $50,000. The Prasad-Deplane company was broker.

Abraham D. Surie has bought the six apartments at 715 Independence boulevard from Joseph Paul for a reported $52,000, subject to $37,000 mortgage. Samuel E. Davidson was attorney for the buyer.

John Timothy Stone; state's attorney, Eugene Henry Dupee; historian, John Watson Alvord; general agent, Prof. Philip Bell Woodworth; councilors, Orin Lumon Rickard, Louis Grey Richardson, and Francis Herbert Newcomb.

FRANCE, SPAIN AGREE ON TERMS; KRIM SENDS AIDS

PARIS, April 15.—(AP)—Premier Briand saw Count Guichard de Leon, the Spanish ambassador, again today and talked about Riff peace terms. One of the conditions the French will insist upon, with the support of the Spanish delegates, is an immediate and complete armistice, with the possibility that the French will occupy the zone of the tribes north of the Guebra, which have made their submission since hostilities were suspended last fall.

The French are determined not to leave these tribes at the mercy of a sudden eruption of Abd-el-Krim's forces in case the negotiations do not proceed to the pretender's satisfaction. This is one of the first points that will be discussed, and it probably will be settled at Taurit, where Krim's delegates were expected today.

The British delegates who received invitations to attend peace negotiations with France and Spain at Oudjda have started for the French lines.

Telephone Service Yesterday's Dream • Today's Necessity

This year, 1926, is the fiftieth anniversary of the Telephone.

It is the forty-ninth anniversary of the installation of the first Telephone in Chicago.

It was considered something just short of a miracle, back in 1877, when a voice downtown was instantaneously transmitted by Electricity to an eagerly listening ear out in Ravenswood—Chicago's first Telephone Line.

Today in Chicago and surrounding territory, the Telephone is as accepted—indeed, some people say, as necessary—as the very air we breathe.

There are more Telephones in the city than there are buildings.

There are approximately 4,000,000 Telephone Calls made here every day.

Where in 1878 Chicago had one Telephone to every 1000 inhabitants, today there is one Telephone for every 3 persons in the city.

It has been said that if every Telephone Subscriber in the city were to make use of his or her Telephone just one time—upon the occasion of some critical emergency affecting life or health or happiness—the cost of Telephone Service for a lifetime would be more than repaid.

Electricity has enabled Telephone Service in the Chicago area to attain its present high peak of development.

Because Electricity can reach wherever Telephone Service must be extended, you find the Telephone Company spending millions of dollars every year to provide additional equipment to help meet the needs of the public.

Telephone Service in the Chicago district is an example of Electrical Service at its best.

Other examples, always at your service, are your Electric Street Cars, your Electric Elevated Trains, your Electric Light and Power Supply.

Use Tribune Want Ads -

MONEY in free circulation is the first requisite of commerce. Free speech and free institutions are necessary to the peace and happiness of nations. A free exchange of commodities is necessary to their fullest growth and development.

That is why the market place has always been the center of civilized communities.

In the course of time the market place has assumed many strange forms. There were the caravans of the East, journeying through the desert by camel and trading with nomadic tribes. Then came the bazaars of Bagdad. Often great sailing ships were a market, carrying their wares to the far corners of the earth. And finally came the great business areas of the present day—the Loop, Fifth Avenue, and Piccadilly.

The Want Ad Section of The Tribune is a comprehensive development of the market place idea. Every week it causes the sale and exchange of more goods than any store holds and of a greater variety of commodities than could possibly be gathered under one roof!

Tribune Want Ads constitute a great piano mart—a good way to buy a grand, a certain way to sell one!

An earnest employee is a large business asset. Recruit your ranks from the host of earnest workers who read The Tribune.

Countless numbers of fine residences are bought and sold regularly as a result of Tribune Want Ad Advertising.

More cars are bought and sold each week through The Tribune Want Ad Section than could be parked in Grant Park.

Remember, Tribune Want Ads will bring your offer to the attention of people who are eager to buy what you have to sell. Over 725,000 times daily and more than a million times on Sunday it will repeat your message to prospects. Remember that Tribune Want Ads can save money for you. Their proven ability to obtain quick response enables you to realize ready cash on your offerings. "Superior 0100—Adtaker."

McKINLEY DEFEAT SPREADS GLOOM IN THE LEAGUE

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

GENEV, April 15.—Senator W. B. McKinley's overwhelming defeat in the Illinois elections has caused widespread gloom in the league of nations circles. League officials would not be surprised if the administration, in view of the Illinois setback, considerably modified its European policy, especially those affecting the league.

Germany Grieves.

BERLIN, April 15.—Germany is bitterly disappointed in Senator W. B. McKinley's defeat on the world court stage, since it sees in it proof that America is becoming more isolationist. "Without America's aid, the world court is unable to become the stabilizing factor Europe needs," a high official said.

Rome Not Interested.

ROME, April 15.—Italy is not interested in Senator McKinley's defeat on the world court issue. The newspaper printed nothing, either for or against the American, but it is noted that the world court itself, as well as the American adherence to it, is a dead issue here.

British Press Mourn.

LONDON, April 15.—There is no interest here in the result of the Illinois primary. There was not a word in any English paper about the campaign. Today only the Times carries the result, which was mentioned incidentally in another dispatch. The British public, it is said, is not interested in the domestic quarrel in the United States over the world court, the diplomats almost have lost hope of American support in the league of nations in the near future and are making all plans on the assumption that America will not join.

Was Factious on Hearst.

PARIS, April 15.—The French press does not mention in the news columns editorially Senator McKinley's defeat over the world court issue. The French press on the ground that it is purely an American domestic problem and lacks significance outside of the United States. The newspapers reprint paragraphs stating that six were killed at Harbin during election riots, with factious headlines, however.

U. S. ALONE CAN DEVELOP RUSSIA, SAYS LEADER

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

MOSCOW, April 15.—(UP)—The United States, with its ready liquid capital and colossal energy, is the only nation which is capable of tapping the immense untapped resources of Russia. It is the opinion of the Russian government that the United States alone can develop Russia, and that the United States alone can make a profit, and then invest in Russia. The difference between Europe and America is that Europe makes a profit, and then invests in Russia, while America has liquid capital, augmented by colossal energy and skill. The American offer is acceptable, but the American offer is preferred.

"There is scarcely a more profitable business than the concession in Russia. We don't limit profits, we want tax excess, and therefore are vitally interested in the concessionaire's success. Our country offers a vast field which will make the money he has invested in his concession in three years. Mind, the concession ground as yet is not nearly broken."

"The American concessions which the Russian plans to grant are those in the metal industry, mining, cement, lumber, and many manufactured products. Russia's demand for manufactured goods is growing daily. Mr. Joffe said, the concession ground as yet is not nearly broken."

Dr. Charles F. Ely, 71, Is Found Dead in Bed

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Dr. Charles Franklin Ely, 73, of Highland place, was found dead in bed yesterday morning, supposedly a victim of heart trouble. Dr. Ely, who was 71 years old, had attended his practice in his office at 25 East Washington street, Wednesday as usual. He came to Chicago in 1878 from New York, where he had been born, and where for a time he was connected with the board of health. He became well known as a lecturer on pathological anatomy.

Amherst Alumni Plan to Fete President Tomorrow

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

The alumni of Amherst college are assembling here for a day at the University club tomorrow. Dr. George D. Olds, president of the college, and several members of the faculty will be present. Problems of the college, such as the limitation of attendance and means of selecting officers, will be discussed. A banquet will be given in the evening, at which Dr. Max Mason, will speak.

Woodlawn Post of Legion Initiates 550 Members

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Five thousand persons attended the huge initiation of the Woodlawn post, American Legion, which was held last night in the Midway Masonic temple. Five hundred and fifty members were added to the post, making Woodlawn the largest in the state. Post Commander Hamlet Ridgway acted as master of ceremonies.

She Mistakes Cop for Blues Chaser; Fines $5

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Mrs. Bertha Yeoman, 23 years old, 435 Hazel street, was fined $5 yesterday for a mistake. Policeman Gordon for a civilian and mistook her for a blues chaser. She was "rightfully" told she was mistaken and asked him to accompany her. He did as far as her home, where he arrested her.

SALE OF U. S. SHIPS TO DOLLAR INTERESTS ASSAILED IN HOUSE

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., April 15.—(UP)—The shipping board in the House today by Representative Wood (Rep., Ind.), in charge of the appropriation bill carrying funds for the board. Charging that the sale was a clear violation of the law, he said it was the "greatest blow ever dealt since the American merchant marine was established."

The sale was defended by Representative Berg (Rep., N. J.), who declared he was "one member of congress who would trust the action of the president of the United States" and that "if there has been any violation of law in connection with this sale of ships, the law is broken."
